

SUMMER 2018

St. Mary's

THE MAGAZINE OF ST. MARY'S EPISCOPAL SCHOOL

2018 OUTSTANDING
ALUMNA
DR. DONNA
OSBORNE
BRADLEY '74

A LETTER FROM THE HEAD OF SCHOOL

I believe in St. Mary's mission and never more so than when the seniors graduate. At Commencement, I am always struck by the power of each student reaching her individual potential. Some of the graduates, over the course of as many as 15 years at St. Mary's, encountered opportunities and experiences that we designed for them and in which they thrived. Others found in our environment the inspiration to create their own opportunities. Each girl will matriculate in August with brand new paths to explore. This school inspires students and adults alike, as you will read in the pages that follow.

I believe in our mission of enabling and encouraging girls to reach their individual potential, because our community is strongest when each student discovers her own God-given talents, as well as the seasons in which they flourish. Fortunately, our mission doesn't predict how long this discovery takes! Our alumnae Chapel speakers often reflect on the seeds planted here that only later in college or adult life come to fruition.

Over the course of traveling and visiting alumnae on both coasts (and in-between) this year, I had a recurring observation that brought this experience to life. During every visit, I was impressed by each woman's talent and purpose. They were philanthropists, authors, mothers, CEOs, and inventors. Their range of personality and perspective was joined by a similar and strong sense of identity and intention. I found myself saying aloud after each visit, "Wasn't she amazing? Have you ever met anyone like that before?" Then I would answer my own question, "Of course, she went to St. Mary's." ▲

Albert Throckmorton

Albert Throckmorton
Head of School

St. Mary's

SUMMER 2018

The magazine of St. Mary's Episcopal School is published as a service to all alumnae, students, parents, faculty, staff, and friends of the school.

Head of School

Albert Throckmorton

Director of Advancement

Angie Gardner

Director of Alumnae

Rainey Ray Segars '05

Editor

Laura Russell

Photography

Lisa Buser, Troy Glasgow

Contributors

Dr. Laura Leathers
Rainey Ray Segars '05
Dr. Jeanne Wilson

Letters to the Editor

Please address all correspondence to:
St. Mary's Episcopal School
41 N. Perkins
Memphis, TN 38117
lhubbard@stmarysschool.org
901.537.1426

Parents of alumnae: If your daughter no longer maintains an address at your home, please notify Director of Alumnae Rainey Ray Segars '05 at 901.537.1424 or rsegars@stmarysschool.org.

The mission of St. Mary's Episcopal School is to provide a superior educational experience for girls which will encourage and enable each student to reach her individual potential.

St. Mary's Episcopal School does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, or national origin in the administration of its admission, financial aid, educational, athletic, extracurricular, or other policies.

 @St.Mary'sEpiscopalSchool

 @StMarysMemphis

 YouTube St. Mary's Episcopal School

 @StMarysEpiscopalSchool

On cover: Dr. Donna Osborne Bradley '74

CONTENTS

ST. MARY'S • SUMMER 2018

10

DR. DONNA
OSBORNE
BRADLEY '74

2018 Outstanding Alumna

2

PRINCESSES & POTENTIAL

If not a princess, then what?

4

CURRICULUM FOR THE FUTURE

Innovating through individualized curriculum

6

SPRINGBOARD
FOR SUCCESS

22

CLASS NOTES

53

MILESTONES

12

CAMPUS NEWS

20

WINTER &
SPRING SPORTS

6

2018

GRADUATES

PRINCESSES & POTENTIAL

BY DR. JEANNE WILSON

Twenty-nine years ago, I gave my heart to St. Mary's and her girls, and I never took it back.

From the moment Virginia Pretti, former Head of Moss Hall, asked me to be part of this wonderful place, I knew it would become my home for as many hours as I would spend here each day. I have to admit that I never imagined that, at some point, I would be arriving before 7 a.m. and leaving some 10 or 11 hours later. But then, I never thought I would be "in charge."

You don't work in one place for 29 years without getting to know it pretty well – the hiccups of everyday life, the challenges, the unforgettable joys, the people who have made it what it is today, and a sense of the future. Life is a journey, and the life of St. Mary's is no exception.

Being a former Girl Scout, I learned a long time ago that a compass is a good thing to have when you start out into the woods, or through life. And, it's not a bad thing to have a couple of them in your pocket when you're on a long journey.

For more than 170 years, St. Mary's Episcopal School has been navigating through the history and landscape of Memphis and the lives of her students. Through that journey, those of us who have led and taught, past and present, have held on tightly to the two compasses that have brought us where we are today. The first is our Episcopal identity, through which we understand and believe in our responsibility to respect all people. Our second compass is our Mission Statement that mandates providing each student a superior education which encourages and enables each girl to reach her full, individual potential.

Girls (and faculty) at St. Mary's know about meeting their individual potential. It is the promise made to our youngest girls when they enter the Marlene R. Shaw Early Childhood Center and kept until they graduate as strong, confident young women. It is the same promise that was made to me when I began my career here as a teacher and followed me through my doctoral studies, the establishment of the Lightbulb Lab (the Early Childhood Center's resource lab), and the opportunity to be the Head of Early Childhood. Earlier this spring, our Pre-Kindergarten girls took some time to talk about potential. Well, actually, they talked about becoming princesses. All the girls would love to be princesses when they grow up, and maybe they will, but the thing about potential is that it can look very different for each of us at different times in our lives. In their conversations, Mrs. Maddux and Mrs. Anderson asked the girls this question, "If you don't grow up to be a princess, what would you like to be?"

In this particular class, there were two girls, Jane Rojas '32 and Louise Pietrangelo '32, whom I know well; their moms, Anna Snyder Rojas '01 and Sarah Matthews Pietrangelo '01, were at St. Mary's when I arrived in 1988. Their daughters' presence in the Early Childhood Center reminds me that I am now teaching my second generation of girls and that I have had the opportunity to watch both mothers and daughters follow the St. Mary's path of promise and potential.

If not a princess, then what? Jane told her teachers she would like to be a nurse, like her mom. Louise, on the other hand, said she would like to be a waitress so she can help all of us! Of course, Jane and Louise have a long way to go before their full potential is met, and their life goals may change. In fact, my hope for them is my hope for all of our girls, past and present: that they'll never stop learning and growing and changing, grabbing hold of every opportunity.

Dr. Jeanne Wilson with members of the Class of 2030 at Senior Kindergarten graduation.

Next year, we will have our largest class ever of St. Mary's Place girls, our two-year-old students. These girls are the face of St. Mary's tomorrow. To each of these girls, we will once again make the promise to walk alongside them with encouragement, enabling each one of them to become the best person they can be.

For almost three decades, I have had the privilege of teaching hundreds of girls, all strong and capable in their own ways. Today, I think about all the young women I remember as little girls, the girls who are here now, and those to come. In them I see St. Mary's as it was and is and will be – a place full of potential. In the words of Mary Davis, our beloved Dean Emerita, "It has been a remarkable journey." ▲

CURRICULUM FOR THE FUTURE

BY DR. LAURA LEATHERS

More than 170 years ago, Mary Foote Pope founded a small parish school, which we know today as St. Mary's Episcopal School. Mary's belief that girls should have the opportunity to receive an excellent education continues to resonate through the halls of St. Mary's today. Every day, we strive to maintain a culture which encourages and enables each girl to reach her individual potential. As we continuously evaluate and enhance our curriculum, we are focused on creating courses and programs that are engaging, interdisciplinary, and experiential. Our dedicated and innovative faculty design curricula that are challenging and engaging for students who have a wide variety of talents and interests.

Relocating the 5th grade to the North Campus will provide our students with a variety of opportunities for exploration.

New to the 5th grade schedule is the addition of a weekly robotics class, which will build on the robotics foundation laid in Lower School. This experience will expose the girls to real-world challenges to be solved by research, critical thinking, construction, teamwork, and imagination. They will have the opportunity to construct robots with both LEGO and VEX systems and can participate in local and regional competitions.

Another exciting change for next year will be the opportunity for our Lower School girls to engage in athletics. Students in 3rd to 5th grades can compete in the Memphis Youth Athletics cross country league in the fall. In the spring, students may choose to play lacrosse in a newly created local league.

The Kelly N. Ridder Honors Independent Research Study program offers select junior and senior students an opportunity to conduct high-level research in an area of interest as part of their academic experience. Students thrive under the mentorship of teachers who model passion, commitment, and courage, who instill equal amounts of inspiration and responsibility, and who create new ways to approach old problems. In past years, students have redesigned surgical instruments with engineers at Medtronic, used reimagined. Offerings in French and Spanish work toward purposeful communication, with a deeper understanding of the interconnection of culture, practices, and perspectives that form the world view of different cultures. Overarching themes are designed to foster real-world communication and include the topics of families and communities, science and technology, contemporary life, courses that remain graduation requirements. The beauty of this system is that a student may take more than the required English courses if she wishes, and we are confident that some students will elect to do so.

Creating a challenging curriculum which enables each girl to reach her individual potential is at the heart of our mission. We believe in preparing students to excel in college and beyond, to learn to innovate and create, and to understand what it means to be a leader. Our graduates are expected to shape a changing world, and St. Mary's provides diverse curricular paths so that each girl may go forth, prepared to do so. ▲ "We are focused on creating courses and programs that are engaging, interdisciplinary, and experiential."

standardized test data to design and implement an after-school tutoring program to increase math and reading proficiency scores in collaboration with a local charter school, and worked with scientists from the University of Memphis to learn more about the environmental health of the Wolf River system.

Our World Languages Department faculty members have been studying the best practices in language instruction and have adopted the Comprehensible Input (CI) model of teaching. In this model, language acquisition is built slowly over time. Required course readings include authentic texts, novellas, and newspapers. These courses are still taught with the primary goal of proficiency in language and culture; however, to engage students further, upper-level electives are and world challenges. Exposure to each language includes watching the news, reading short stories and blogs, and getting involved in non-English-speaking communities in both the Mid-South and beyond.

Within the English Department, Upper School offerings will now include several electives: Minority Voices in Literature, Faith and Doubt in Literature, and Creative Writing and Poetry, in addition to the traditional British Literature

SPRINGBOARD FOR SUCCESS

BY LAURA RUSSELL

Caroline Ciaramitaro '18

St. Mary's has long been known for its mission of enabling and encouraging each student during her time at the school. Hear from five St. Mary's girls who are using their experiences to reach for their individual potential.

Caroline Ciaramitaro '18

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Hazlehurst Gold Cross recipient, 2018

Tell me a little bit about your time at St. Mary's.

I came to St. Mary's in 9th grade from Grace-St. Luke's, a shift from a coed to an all-girls environment. For the first time, I was in a truly supportive environment where my surroundings not only encouraged but also pushed me to succeed. St. Mary's encouraged me to question, pushed me to do "the big things," and emboldened me to try it all. Mrs. Bielskis was the most influential faculty member at St. Mary's because of my work with I AM THAT GIRL and my interest in empowering girls.

What advice do you have about taking the risks necessary to find your individual potential?

I feel like environment and confidence are crucial to success. In supporting others, I have learned to support myself, too. At 15 years old, I decided to go work at theSkimm in New York City as an intern and used every tool possible to make it happen, including sending BBQ to them! Persistence paid off, and I was offered summer internships and learned so much about pushing for what I knew was the right path for me.

Chelsey Chen '18

Johns Hopkins University
Rebecca Locke Young Valedictorian, 2018

Tell me a little bit about your time at St. Mary's.

I started attending St. Mary's in Pre-Kindergarten,

Chelsey Chen '18 competing in a fencing tournament.

and while I graduate as a 15-year student, I missed three years of school after being diagnosed with leukemia in 3rd grade. During that time, many of my teachers gave up their weekends to tutor me at home. Their kindness and dedication is my inspiration. I work daily to strengthen those same qualities in myself, and they inspire me to strive for excellence. They have impressed upon me never to do anything without putting my whole heart into it. I love the close relationships girls can form with their teachers at all levels of education here. They are genuinely happy to teach you and learn more about you as a person, not just a student. St. Mary's has given me invaluable tools to help me discover my passions and grow both inside and outside the classroom.

Susan Whitten '86 on a 2011 service trip to Costa Rica to build a playground for an elementary school with St. Mary's students Katherine Donovan '14, Haley Steinman '14, and Madison Cox '14.

Patience Chambliss Wiggin '98 with her family.

What advice do you have about taking the risks necessary to find your individual potential?

There is no "formula" for reaching individual potential. I think the important thing to remember is to never stop growing. You can view your potential and abilities in any way you want, but once you stop striving, you only fall farther from your goals. Take things slowly and start out small. It isn't a race because you are competing against only yourself. Taking the first step, no matter how small, elevates your potential and helps you grow.

Susan Whitten '86

Community Volunteer
Gold Cross recipient, 1986

Tell me a little bit about your time at St. Mary's.

I began attending St. Mary's in the 5th grade, and it challenged me beyond anything I had ever known. With the whole community working together to make each student the best person she could be, not just through Chapel and our religious studies classes, I knew I could accomplish anything.

Do you find yourself "paying it forward"?

I believe that women mentors are so important in my life, and I want to give that back to others by finding the right fit for a student, a teacher, or a friend. Working with the St. Mary's Community Fund and building relationships with nonprofits have offered me the chance to connect with those in need, and I am blessed that "paying it forward" is a part of my job.

Patience Chambliss Wiggin '98

Executive, Optum
Spirit of St. Mary's Award recipient, 1998

Tell me a little bit about your time at St. Mary's.

I attended St. Mary's beginning in the 8th grade, and I found that the teachers at St. Mary's offered me invaluable instructive help through an informal system of support. I had never been tested so hard, or had to work so hard, and the study habits learned there helped me through law school and passing the bar exam. As a new student, I immediately became a part of the community who raised me up and nurtured me throughout my St. Mary's experience.

Do you find yourself "paying it forward"?

My father described public service as giving back, and I was raised to govern my life by the Golden Rule. I knew becoming a lawyer would be a tough path, but it drove me to be the best person I could be, as well as gave me a heart for helping others. At St. Mary's, there is always someone else to help to make sure no one slips through the cracks. I was encouraged as a small child to be of assistance to those who are less fortunate, and I hope to instill these values in my three children.

Suzanne Manugian '02 conducts a harbor seal population census.

Suzanne Manugian '02
Independent Consultant

Tell me a little bit about your time at St. Mary's.

My journey at St. Mary's began in kindergarten, and I was a 14-year senior when I graduated in 2002. St. Mary's instilled a work ethic to produce my best work and be my best self. I knew from an early age that I wanted to be a marine biologist, and my teachers at St. Mary's encouraged me through their passion for their subjects. I gained confidence to follow my passion of providing environmental services and focusing on aquatic wildlife management as my career.

How do you describe reaching your individual potential?

Being in a field that I enjoy, doing work that I love, connecting with other like-minded people, and working in a space that encourages answering scientific questions fulfill my need to be part of a community who volunteers and gives back. I recently started my own company in the Bay Area as an environmental consultant, and through my work, I hope not only to give back to the scientific community but also to mentor the next generation. ▲

2018 OUTSTANDING ALUMNA

DR. DONNA OSBORNE BRADLEY '74

BY RAINIE RAY SEGARS '05

Dr. Donna Osborne Bradley '74, St. Mary's 2018 Outstanding Alumna, was featured in last year's Women's History Month series as one of our very own remarkable, history-making women. That article is reprinted here, in celebration of Donna as our most recent Outstanding Alumna.

In the fifth and final week of Women's History Month, we are proud to feature Dr. Donna Osborne Bradley '74, one of the first two African-American students to attend St. Mary's. Donna Osborne and Candy Walker entered St. Mary's in the 7th grade, in 1968.

"Sending me to St. Mary's was difficult for my mother," Donna recalls. "She was president of the public school's teachers' union, and she took a lot of criticism for taking me out of public school. But reconciliation was starting in the Episcopal Church, and the Bishop asked her to send me to St. Mary's. She told him that they couldn't afford it, but he told her just to go ahead, and they'd figure it out.

"A lot of parents pulled their girls out of St. Mary's when they heard the school was integrating. It was hard because girls had already made up their minds that they didn't like us (referring to herself and Candy Walker) because their friends weren't there anymore because of us."

Board Chair John T. Fisher and Headmaster Dr. Nathaniel Hughes, along with Dean of Students Mary Davis, took a stand and made the hard decision to be among the first private schools in Memphis to integrate in 1968. "Who knows what it cost Dr. Hughes? I suppose he could have lost his job," Donna shared. She was grateful for the chance to talk with Dr. Hughes before his death about the stance he took and the effect it had on her life.

"I hope the girls today don't take the opportunities they have for granted."

Though Donna remembers friendship and kindness from some classmates, she recalls, "It was tough at times. Intentional or not, I was excluded from a lot of social activities. I found out later some of the parents wouldn't allow it. Sometimes teachers were unkind; one wouldn't stop calling us 'nigras.' Let's just say, Dr. Hughes took care of it when he found out."

St. Mary's English teacher, Mary "Presh" Gill (then Baker), who attended the recent Chapel at which Donna spoke, made a profound impression on Donna. "I had to take a remedial English class after school. Were it not for Mrs. Gill, I would not have the writing skills that I have today."

Donna, now an adjunct professor, has practiced law and worked in inner city ministry. In addition to her J.D., she also has a Ph.D. in public safety and criminal justice.

A turning point in Donna's relationship with her St. Mary's classmates came during a class conference call to reconnect and reminisce. "My classmates were talking about the good old days and all the things they did and the places they went, and I told them that was not my experience. You could hear a pin drop. They had never thought about it, and they were so sorry that I had ever felt excluded. I have a much different relationship with them now. When my son died, they collected donations and paid for his funeral. That meant so much to me."

Donna hopes that the challenges, pain, and sacrifices endured by so many continue to lead toward a better world. "I'm so sad to see this resurgence of hate now. People should never feel empowered to hate overtly again. I had hoped that things would be so much different for my children, and they are, but people are still judged. The laws have changed, but we need to keep changing the hearts of men."

As a result of an interview with St. Mary's student Jasmine Huang '17, Donna joined our community for Chapel and a fireside chat on Friday, March 24 (2017). Her Chapel speech received a standing ovation, and her fireside chat was one of the best-attended and longest conversations we have ever had.

Given what it cost her to help integrate St. Mary's, would Donna do it over again?

"I absolutely would. As a kid, it was tough to have people look down on me without even knowing me, but knowing that St. Mary's is now 30% non-white makes it all worth it. I hope the girls today don't take the opportunities they have for granted – people struggled so that kids now can go where they want to and have opportunities. You sometimes wonder whether or not it made any difference, but really – knowing about that diversity today makes it worth it. I'm proud to be a St. Mary's girl." ▲

CAMPUS NEWS

Awards and Honors

Faculty/Staff Awards

Nanette Quinn Outstanding Teacher Award: Mary Lacy Bell '88
Creative Teacher Award: Sarah Trimm
Fannie Warr Award for Service: Todd Love
Ellen Feild Todd '81 Award: Hilary Davis Robinson '90
Apple Award: Tori Hill
Hazlehurst Gold Cross: Susan Whitten '86

Graduation Awards

Hazlehurst Gold Cross: Caroline Ciaramitaro
Ellen Feild Todd '81 Award: Sabrina Spence
Mary M. Davis Loyalty Award: Julia Preston
Spirit of St. Mary's Award: Hattie Fogarty and Vivi Gray
Tabor Novak Award: Olivia House
Cathedral Award: Jenna Joshi

Upper School Class Day Awards

Rebecca Locke Young Valedictorian: Chelsey Chen
Louise Johnson Young Salutatorian: Nina Kumar
Honor Student: Samantha Lee
English Award: Mackenzie Barnes
Orion C. Miller Math Award: Ellie McGhee
Science Award: Chelsey Chen
History Award: Erin Katz
French Award: Madeleine O'Toole
Latin Award: Vivi Gray
Spanish Award: Nina Kumar
Visual Art Award: Ananya Thakur
Musical Arts Award: Allison Hesselberg
Theater Arts Award: Lauren Ledger and Julia Preston
Religious Studies Award: Erin Jewell
Vicki Ladyman Athletic Award: Jessica Joshi
Lawrence Lobaugh Sportsmanship Award: Olivia House
Sumner Baker Athletic Award: Hattie Fogarty
Best All-Around Athlete Award: Evelyn Roberts
Joyce Gingold Art Award: Anna LaRose Mountain
Palmer Adams Burt '99 Art Award: Kit Hutton
Ardeane McNeil Heiskell Award: Julia Preston
Betty Lou Stidham Award: Erin Jewell

Upper School Class Day Awards (cont'd)

Community Service Award: Anna Rose LaMountain
Jefferson Service Award: Georgia Bruno
Scientific Research Award: Sneha Sharma
Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award: Emily Richards
Dr. Kelly N. Ridder '02 STEM Award: Lauren Davis
Intellectual Curiosity Award: Maryanna Couloubaritsis
Citizenship Awards: Ellie Bridges Greenfield, Ruby Liles, Ananya Thakur, Olivia Nielsen
Awards of Excellence: Kate Kiameh, Ana Albrecht, Arabella McGowan

Book Awards

Rhodes College: Kate Stukenborg
Hollins University: Mason Davis
University of Virginia: Pooja Talati
Washington and Lee University: Faith Bradley
Brandeis University: Kennedy Hamblen
University of Pennsylvania: Mia Wilson
George Eastman Young Leaders Award (University of Rochester): Arabella McGowan
Sewanee: The University of the South: Lily Smith
Frederick Douglass & Susan B. Anthony Award (University of Rochester): Sara Fraser
Randolph College: Kit Hutton
The University of Chicago: Emmaline Rogers
Dartmouth College: Joy Jackson
Wellesley College: Madiha Sohani
Yale University: Gabby Perez

Middle School Awards

Vicki Ladyman Athletic Award: Carrington Davis '22
Carmine B. Vaughn Medal for Service: Laurian Gilliland '22
Joyous Christian Living Award: Alex McVean '22
Gilmore Lynn Award for Service: Sam Jones '22
Mary Paoli Award: Sophia Holland '22 and Maggie McFadden '22
Geoffrey C. Butler Award: Maggie Rosenblum '22
Ellen Feild Todd '81 Award: Marshall McGahey '23 and Erika Ross '23
Joyce Gingold Art Award: Maggie Rosenblum '22
Palmer Adams Burt '99 Art Award: Isabel Dent '24
Anne Westmoreland Garrett Award: Caroline Garrett '24

Lower School Awards

Lila Phillips Gould Award: Lilly Robbins '26
Moss Hall Art Award: Kate Witherington '27
Palmer Adams Burt '99 Art Award: Penelope Flora '29

Early Childhood Awards

Palmer Adams Burt '99 Art Award: Ronshel Rose Kurusanthon '30

Congratulations to the Class of 2018!

The 65-member Class of 2018 matriculated to 39 colleges in 22 states, the District of Columbia, and Canada. They earned more than $13.3 million in merit-based scholarships.

Isra Ahmed/Washington University in St. Louis

Lila Baer/McGill University

Baker Baine/University of South Carolina

Mackenzie Barnes/New York University

Mary Ashley Bateman/The University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Lexi Becker/University of Notre Dame

Lucy Chancellor/Louisiana State University

Chelsey Chen/Johns Hopkins University

Caroline Ciaramitaro/The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Maryanna Couloubaritsis/Indiana University Bloomington

Claire Daniel/University of Georgia

Lauren Davis/The University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Hattie Fogarty/Sewanee: The University of the South

Vivi Gray/University of Southern California

Savanna Grinspan/University of Pennsylvania

Elena Hanessian/Sewanee: The University of the South

Allison Hesselberg/The University of Wisconsin-Madison

Julia Hirt/Texas Christian University

Olivia House/Rhodes College

Eleanor James/University of Georgia

Alexis Jamison/The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Erin Jewell/Xavier University of Louisiana

Jenna Joshi/Georgia Institute of Technology

Erin Katz/The University of Wisconsin-Madison

Pilar Kesser/University of Oregon

Nina Kumar/Rice University

Anna Rose LaMountain/Loyola University Chicago

Caroline Landache/Spring Hill College

Evie Laney/The University of Alabama

Olivia Lawrence/The University of Alabama

Lauren Ledger/Savannah College of Art and Design

Grace Lee/Rutgers/University of New Brunswick

Samantha Lee/University of Southern California

Jessica Lewis/The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Lauren Mabie/Texas Christian University

Mallory Macdonald/Texas Christian University

Hannah Matthews/William & Mary

Sam McCann/New York University

Allison McCown/The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Chandler McDowell/The George Washington University

Ellie McGhee/University of Notre Dame

Adalyn Meeks/Purdue University

Stuart Monaghan/Texas Christian University

Lily Monroe/University of Pennsylvania

Lauren Moore/Rhodes College

Elsie Morrow/The University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Grace Murray/Texas Christian University

Nayla Nassif/Kent State University

Sydney Nichols/University of Arkansas

Olivia Nielsen/University of Memphis

Paige Nielsen/Hope College

Kiara Norris/Fordham University

Madeleine O'Toole/Rhodes College

Livia Overton/Columbia College Chicago

Keith Ellis Prest/University of South Carolina

Julia Preston/University of Virginia

Evelyn Roberts/University of Richmond

Alizeh Saeed/Tulane University

Grace Sammarco/Rhodes College

Anna Scott/The University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Sneha Sharma/University of Pennsylvania

Assata Smith/Spelman College

Sabrina Smith/Washington University in St. Louis

Kyra Tennyson/University of Georgia

Martha Kay Williams/The University of Alabama

Class of 2018.

CAMPUS NEWS

St. Mary's inducted 34 Upper School girls into the National Honor Society.

St. Mary's Beta Club invited 54 girls to be inducted into the organization. These students served more than 3,000 community service hours through volunteer work with more than 120 Mid-South agencies.

St. Mary's inducted 14 members into the Cum Laude Society, the highest academic honor bestowed upon our students.

Honor and Service Organizations

St. Mary's strong academic and service-oriented culture offers many opportunities for students to be recognized for their hard work. They include the Beta Club, the National Honor Society, and Cum Laude Society.

Beta Club

Beta Club prepares today's students to be tomorrow's leaders by promoting the ideals of academic achievement, character, service, and leadership. St. Mary's Beta Club chapter inducted 54 Upper School girls, based upon their collective 3,000 hours of community service to more than 120 Mid-South agencies.

National Honor Society

Founded in 1921, the National Honor Society recognizes students with demonstrated excellence in the areas of scholarship, service, leadership, and character.

The officers of the St. Mary's National Honor Society chapter described the 34 new members as exhibiting ambition, duty, skill to lead, academic curiosity, heart to serve, and a desire to do the right thing.

Cum Laude Society

St. Mary's recognized 14 Cum Laude Society inductees into the prestigious organization that grants chapters to schools of superior academic quality. The seven named members of the Class of 2018 and the seven named members of the Class of 2019 joined a select group of approximately 4,000 high school students to be inducted into the society this year.

Academic Accomplishments

Gabby Perez '19 earned the highest possible ACT composite score of 36. Gabby is very active on campus as a participant on the Mock Trial team, a Youth in Legislature Red House Clerk, the St. Mary's Community Fund GIVE901 Co-Chair, and a member of numerous honor societies. She was a Girls State leadership program participant this summer and the recipient of the St. Mary's Freshman Award of Excellence.

Natalie Cabezas '20 has received a perfect score on the National Spanish Exam for the past three consecutive years in Levels 1, 2, and 3 – Bilingual category. This is a first for St. Mary's, the state of Tennessee, and the United States.

Gabby Perez '19 earned a perfect score of 36 on the ACT.

VEX Robotics

St. Mary's 4th graders brought home honors from the Tennessee VEX IQ robotics competition in Nashville! The "Lords of the Rings" team of Ivy Carls '26, Caroline Chandler '26, and Lilly Coggins '26 won the Excellence Award, the highest award presented in the VEX IQ Challenge. They went on to compete against teams from the United States and around the world in the VEX Robotics World Championship in Louisville, Kentucky, where they received an interview for their design notebook.

Natalie Cabezas '20 is recognized for her outstanding work on the National Spanish Exam.

St. Mary's Community Fund (SMCF)

This year's St. Mary's Community Fund had a record-breaking year of fundraising. They were able to disburse $41,000 in grants to six Mid-South agencies. The total giving of the SMCF since 1998 is nearly $500,000.

Springfest

One of St. Mary's most treasured traditions honored its 128th Springfest Queen, Faith Bradley '19, and the 144th Springfest Princess, Julia Jabbour '24, Leia Green '30, and Madison Jefferson '30 served as pages.

2018 Springfest Court.

"Lords of the Rings" team members at the VEX Robotics World Championship.

St. Mary's Community Fund members and the grant-receiving agencies.

CAMPUS NEWS

Cynthia Pitcock Award Winner

The Cynthia D. Pitcock History Award, established in 2002, bears the name of former St. Mary's History teacher Dr. Cynthia D. Pitcock and honors extraordinary people who have made historically significant contributions. This year's award winner, Paula Casey, is an accomplished journalist, a political activist, and an author who is considered an expert on the suffrage movement and the vote by the state of Tennessee that ratified the 19th Amendment, allowing women the right to vote. Paula spoke to Middle and Upper School students and faculty about the significant contributions the suffragists made to their communities through their exemplary work, providing inspiration to young women to exercise the right to vote to enact change.

Mays Writing

The Mays Writing Award, sponsored by the Mays family, is St. Mary's annual fiction-writing contest that promotes and encourages creative writing at all grade levels. Every student in grades 1–12 wrote a short story based on a common pastoral painting.

Paula Casey, the 2018 Cynthia D. Pitcock History Award recipient, with past recipients, following her Chapel speech.

Bethany Mays Owen '93 and her father, Dr. Kit S. Mays, with the recipients of the Mays Writing Awards.

St. Mary's Mock Trial team had another successful year with a second place finish at the state tournament.

Upper School students revived the classic play "Annie Get Your Gun."

Middle School musical, "Into the Woods, Jr."

Theater Highlights

"Annie Get Your Gun"

St. Mary's Upper School performance of "Annie Get Your Gun" brought our favorite characters to life as the drama between Frank Butler and Annie Oakley (played by Lauren Ledger '18) and the rest of Buffalo Bill's Wild West show unfolded with songs like "Anything You Can Do" and "There's No Business Like Show Business."

"Annie Get Your Gun" received 10 nominations at the Orpheum High School Musical Theatre Awards.

Nominations included:

- Best Chorus
- Best Production Material
- Best Front of House
- Best Music Direction – Julie Millen
- Best Supporting Actress – Julia Preston '18
- Best Supporting Actress – Vivi Gray '18
- Best Lead Actress – Lauren Ledger
- Best Featured Dance – Bizzy Walker '19–Winner
- Best Direction – Jenny Madden
- Outstanding Overall Production

"Into the Woods, Jr."

The two casts of the Middle School play, "Into the Woods, Jr." performed spirited renditions of the classic tale. In this story, a witch tasks a childless baker (played by Nora James Eikner '22) and his wife (played by Kai Keith '23) with breaking a curse by finding items from classic fairy tales, including Little Red Riding Hood, Jack and the Beanstalk, Rapunzel, and Cinderella.

FACULTY & STAFF

Retirements

Lucy Gardner

Lucy came in 1998, first as a long-term substitute, but she transitioned immediately into the position of Pre-Kindergarten (PK) teacher with Cynthia Dickson – a partnership that continued for 20 years. Lucy brought a love of children and teaching to the classroom and created a space for our PK girls to learn in an environment that was exciting and fun. One of her greatest gifts is her organizational skills, which we all benefited from, and she was recognized for her work by being named the recipient of the 2017 Nanette Quinn Outstanding Teacher Award. Lucy's next job is one that she's been looking forward to for a long time; she will be spending extra time with her two adorable grandchildren.

Lucy Gardner

Sallie Harris

Sallie began her career at St. Mary's as a substitute in 1990, and for many years, she made herself available to help us out when someone was sick or away. In 1997, she began teaching full-time in the Early Childhood Center, where she brought joy to her students and taught them well. She is also the mother of a St. Mary's alumna, Rebecca Harris '05. As for the faculty, she has been our friend, and we are glad to see her move back into her original position as substitute extraordinaire.

Sallie Harris

Carolyn Murray

Carolyn joined the library team nine years ago and quickly made herself invaluable. Besides all of the behind-the-scenes work she does to ensure the library runs smoothly, she has read every Middle School book club book and participated in all of the lunchtime discussions. Carolyn has worked with the 6th grade Battle of the Books and helped with class projects when extra help was needed. Her kind, helpful, and always pleasant nature has made her a favorite of students and faculty alike. She has a way of making everyone who enters the library feel welcome. Carolyn will be sorely missed.

Carolyn Murray

Barbara Person

Barbara started teaching at St. Mary's in 2005 as Gwen Collier's partner in Junior Kindergarten. As a teacher for more than 20 years at a number of schools, Barbara brought her experience and nurturing personality to the classroom. Her favorite St. Mary's memories are being able to participate in the fun traditions, including Felicity Day and the Christmas Pageant. Barbara will be missed by all of her colleagues who count her as a true friend.

Barbara Person

Susan Whitten '86

Susan models servant leadership for our students while performing each of her duties with grace, her ever-present smile, and her calm, soothing presence. It is amazing to watch her nurture both faculty and students and observe how attentively she listens. Both within St. Mary's and outside in the Greater Memphis community, she has worked tirelessly and humbly, breaking down walls and building relationships. Her calling and service include Facing History, the St. Mary's Community Fund, service trips and service plunges, after-school tutoring, and pet therapy. With passion and purpose, she has taught our students how to be "light and life" in the places they find themselves. For her dedication, she was awarded the Hazlehurst Gold Cross.

Susan Whitten

Dr. Jeanne Wilson

Jeanne began her career at St. Mary's in 1989 and for nearly 30 years has taught, nurtured, and inspired hundreds of young girls and collaborated with dozens of teachers. In 2001, Dr. Wilson received the Creative Teacher Award and in 2013 received the Hazlehurst Gold Cross, St. Mary's highest honor.

As a teacher, a learning specialist, and the Head of the Early Childhood Center, Dr. Wilson has devoted herself to young children and their development. She has celebrated the joys of reading, writing, rhyming, counting, tinkering, and making friends. As the mother of St. Mary's alumna Leigh Wilson Jacobs '94 and a grandmother, Dr. Wilson knows the essential role parents play in the earliest years of a girl's education and has shared generously her professional and personal wisdom. Dr. Wilson has been the faithful shepherd of our "itty bitties" and establishes a strong foundation so that every girl reaches her potential. We wish her the best of luck in her retirement.

Dr. Jeanne Wilson

WINTER & SPRING SPORTS

St. Mary's athletics have taken on new prominence this year, and the Winter & Spring teams continued the trajectory with outstanding results this season.

WINTER SPORTS

Middle School Swim team placed first in the Women's and Combined division while the Varsity Swim team placed third in the Shelby County Meet and eighth at the Tennessee State Meet.

Kiara Norris '18 placed fourth at the state meet in the 50m free and third in the 100m fly. She will continue her swimming career at Fordham University, a Division I school, next season.

Middle School Basketball showed promise for the future of the sport at St. Mary's with both the 6th grade and 7th grade teams finishing as Shelby League Runner-Up in their division. The 8th grade team finished as the Shelby League Champions.

Meghan Aslin '22 and Louise Laney '22 were named to the All-Tournament Team while Luci Adams '22 was named the Tournament MVP.

Varsity Fencing team competed in the Junior Olympics, one of the most competitive fencing tournaments in the nation. Shiyana Kesser '20 and Ashley Graflund '21 fenced in Cadet Women's Foil in their first national tournament. Chelsey Chen '18 fenced in Junior Women's Epee and placed 175th out of approximately 235 fencers.

Varsity Bowling team completed its season as Regional Runner-Up, and Lauren Davis '18 finished fourth in the state individual bowling championship.

Olivia House commits to play soccer at Rhodes College while Hattie Fogarty commits to play lacrosse at Sewanee: The University of the South.

Kalen Ingram '21 placed 3rd in high jump at the state meet with a personal record of 5'0".

SPRING SPORTS

Middle School Lacrosse

team became Shelby League Champions by defeating Hutchison in overtime for the second year in a row.

Carrington Davis '22 was named Tournament MVP.

Varsity Lacrosse ended their season in the state semi-final game, losing to Ensworth 6-7 in a hard-fought battle.

Hattie Fogarty '18, Evelyn Roberts '18, Erin Katz '18, and Mary Jones '20 were named All-Region Players.

Tennis teams had another successful season. The Middle School team remained undefeated in regular season matches, and the Varsity team sent three players to the state tournament. Celia Stem '20 and Ana Taylor '20 participated in doubles but lost in the state quarterfinals while Esha Gudisova '20 was State Runner-Up in singles.

Middle School Track & Field team finished fifth in Shelby County while the Varsity team finished third at Middle School Lacrosse won the Shelby League Championship for the second consecutive year.

Gabrielle Rose Chang '95, two-time Olympian, was on hand to send off the team to the state championship in Knoxville.

the regional meet. The Varsity team also sent five athletes to the state meet where Madison Motley '19 placed eighth in the 100m dash, Kalen Ingram '21 placed third in high jump with a personal record of 5'0", Martha Kay Williams '18 placed fourth in long jump with a 17'7" jump and seventh in triple jump with a 34' jump, and the 4x2 Relay Team of Sydney Graeter '21, Joy Jackson '19, Madison Motley, and Martha Kay Williams finished eighth.

Varsity Trap team competed in the West Tennessee regional tourney and were the top local team. Leading the Turkeys with a new St. Mary's record score of 98 was Emily Ferguson '20, who took Top Lady over 67 other varsity girls.

The Commercial Appeal All-Metro Team Nominations recognize the area's prep athletes, who have found success not only in sports but also in the classroom, where they have to meet certain academic Julia Preston '18 and Kate Stukenborg '20 high-five following a great point.

Kaela Keith '23 dribbles down the court.

standards to remain eligible to play.

St. Mary's fielded four All-Metro Team athletes in five categories:

Lacrosse – Evelyn Roberts '18
Bowling – Lauren Davis '18
Swim – Kiara Norris '18
Tennis – Eesha Gudiseva '20 – Winner
Girls Athlete of the Year –
Private School – Evelyn Roberts

CLASS NOTES

1963

Canon Thomas Hall

canonhall@att.net

Julia Alissandratos traveled to Greece in May with family. When at home, Julia is active in her church and the cultural scene in Charleston. Tina Heslep Ciliberto "continues to appreciate retirement, being active in her church, attending many musical events, and babysitting grandchildren and granddogs when needed." Tina and husband Tony toured Tuscany and Florence last year and have an Alaskan cruise planned for this fall. Sara Sorsby Dennis writes, "lately I enjoyed visiting my son in Austin, Texas. I am still enjoying private practice, helping to raise Irish triplets (11 year old twins and a 10 year old), and managing to survive watching two children's movies in one weekend." Sara remains addicted to dark chocolate and stands amazed at life's detours. Jenny Emison Ewing and husband Ward celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary by taking their children and grandchildren to Monteagle Assembly Grounds, where they hiked to Fiery Gizzard and Lost Cave Cove on the Sewanee Mountain and visited the place where Jenny and Ward met and first kissed. Romance is not lost! Throughout the past year, they took various "mini-honeymoons" to celebrate and commemorate this wonderful milestone.

Carolyn Collier Johnson says she "relishes small town living in Pass Christian, Mississippi with involvement in numerous local organizations, porch sitting with friends (even the day it snowed!), reading, crossword puzzles, flowers, and days with nothing on the calendar."

Joyce Wilkerson Kaplan, master weaver, and husband Jon enjoyed a May trip to New York City with their goddaughter (22). Highlights of the adventure included museums, art, musical performances, and coffee houses. (Note: Washington Staters need their coffee!) Sailing remains a passion for them. Donna Lansing Plumer may live in Memphis, but her greatest joys reside in Texas — three children, four grandsons, and one granddaughter. Donna keeps Southwest Airlines busy. In early spring, Donna toured New Mexico, including stops in Santa Fe and Taos and visits to Christ of the Desert and Abiquiu (look it up; I had to). In April, Donna joined Patty Ozier Riffel and her husband Kirby for a wonderful European vacation. They began a tour of Italy in Venice, then on to Florence and Milan. From Milan, they boarded a train to Basel, where they began a Rhine river cruise to wonderful destinations in Germany. Patty and Kirby also celebrated 50 years of marriage early this year, soaring in an open cockpit Bearcat! Now, that takes courage! They loved it. Patty also participated in the Bridge Nationals in Philadelphia.

Jackie Whiteleather loves her small town but admits living there presents some challenges, such as large and small forest creatures coming into town, looking for tasty flowers or garbage. She has spotted bears, deer, skunks, and rabbits. How cool to look out your window and see awesome animals. She enjoys exercise classes several times a week and looks forward to summertime hiking in the mountains. Your intrepid cub reporter Canon Thomas Hall has mothballed her chef's hat after hosting a home-cooked meal for over 90 people in October for the Rhodes College 50th reunion. In March, Canon and husband Clay spent a wonderful long weekend in Mobile at a lovely B&B and enjoyed lots of great seafood. They anticipate a fall trip to the beach. Like Carolyn, she treasures days on the calendar with nothing inked in. It seems, however, that the Class of '63 doesn't have many days like that. Our class continues to be vibrant and on the move.

1965

Julia Malone

julialmalone@gmail.com

Reports from our class show that, despite our small number, we have remarkably varied lives with satisfying activities.

Patti Person Ray had a big challenge when she was diagnosed almost a year ago with an early form of cancer, but she has emerged the victor and is now back in action. She's already traveled to Munich to do research for the October 2019 Alumnae Alpine Adventure. Cathy Hoover Allen will join the trip. Patti is hoping others from '65 will too. Meanwhile, she is continuing as an adjunct teacher at Union University and planning a summer cruise in the Caribbean with husband Barry. Lucy Minor Glasebrook has concentrated her recent travel to and from Greenwich, Conn., where her two grandchildren live, and to Sea Island, Ga., where she and Dick have rebuilt their vacation home. They also spent much of winter in home #3 in Palm Beach. (Your class secretary does well to keep care of one condo.) Lucy and Dick are heavily into contemporary art, serving on boards in the art field and traveling abroad to add to their collection. Ellen Rumsey Bellenot takes a different artistic direction. She is an artist. In fact, you can sign up to take a course from her in polymer clay works at the arts and crafts center in Tallahassee, Fla., where she lives with "favorite husband" Steven, who is associate chair of the math department at Florida State University. (Ellen says, "If only Miss Moose and Mrs. Shepherd—or anyone else at St. Mary's who tried to teach me anything that involved a number—knew that I'd spent the last 43 years living with a mathematician....I can't help but think they'd get a good laugh. They earned it.") Marion West Hammer, now fully retired from teaching, is focusing on her grandchildren, including two grandsons who live in Memphis and a 20-month-old granddaughter who lives in Charlotte, N.C. Marion is planning a family beach trip to Amelia Island, Fla., this summer. "Life is good!" she says. Kathy Sweany Bertram reports she's still practicing outpatient internal medicine and geriatrics in Cookeville, Tenn. Daughter Amy teaches film at Belmont College, so that continues the art theme for our class. Kathy is serving on her local PBS board and recently attended the annual meeting, as well as Jazz Fest, in New Orleans. Susan Hoefer Foster survived an "old time Montana winter" with "brutal" temperatures. "Perhaps I am earning my stripes as a 'Montana Woman!'" she says. Plus, she added a lab puppy to the household — "adorable — but demanding!" Susan also took a demanding course on the Physics of Green Energy. Julia Malone continues to live in Washington, D.C., play gobs of tennis, and love photography. She's headed to Puglia, Italy (in the boot) in May with a photography group and also plans a trip to Japan in the autumn.

CLASS NOTES

1967

Bette West Bush

bbush11@att.net

Our ladies are still going strong 51 years after graduating from St. Mary's. Libba Mann Harbin, like me, is "non-technically happy by choice." She and husband Bob had the whole family, some coming from D.C. and NYC, to their "Rome home" (Georgia) for Easter, which included egg dyeing, Easter egg hunts, and springtime play with their grandchildren. Janie Allen Till and husband Bob are enjoying Denver, getting to see their eight grandchildren and three sons and daughters-in-law more often, after moving from Colorado Springs in June 2017 when Janie retired from teaching. She now enjoys subbing at two nearby schools, which she did not expect to like, but she has been "pleasantly surprised." Lynn Bledsoe Buhler's big news is her retirement in March from her law practice. Husband Jon refers to her as "unemployed," but she pays "no attention to him." Lynn also told me that Lou Archer Slater is now a grandmother by son Bennett and his wife, but Lou has not sent me any details. Signe Magnuson Spencer says "hi" to everyone. She is still working at Korn Ferry and "still adjusting to being acquired." Her fun work experience involved being on the analysis group for a Rockefeller-funded study of women CEOs at the biggest organizations, conducting 57 interviews, which resulted in "Women CEOs Speak," available at kornferry.com. Daughter Emily's husband left the military in June and has a good job in his field of interest in the Boston area, meaning Signe's grandchildren Rose and Locke are back home, close to Signe. Shelley Smith plans a summer visit to NYC to see her son and his wife, as well as a visit to a college friend and sorority sister in midtown. She still lives her "rockstar life of pilates and playing with her dog" in Chicago and, since retiring from practicing law in 2017, declares that "Vegas is giving very poor odds on (her) ever doing anything productive again." Other plans include a trip to London and northern Italy during fungi season and to D.C. for the KKG reunion in October. Alice Cockcroft Oates spent Easter weekend with sister Carolyn Cockcroft '71 in D.C., where she saw the Tomb of Christ exhibit at the National Geographic Museum, which she highly recommends. At home in Williamsburg, Alice likes being a guide at her church, historic Bruton Parish. She and husband Jack enjoyed a river cruise from Amsterdam to Budapest in May. Alice sends her best to all. Jeannie Whitman Esdaile still goes up to London a few days a week to do archiving for James Purdey and Sons, the gun makers. She is also now leading the Leconfield Singers, a choral group of about 100, who performed Haydn's Creation in concert with soloists and the English Philharmonia at Chichester Cathedral, as well as four concerts in Prague. Jeannie's sister Nancy Whitman Manire '64 and son Robert with his wife Marion plan a visit over the summer. Jeannie and husband Christopher enjoy his grandsons, Charlie (7) and Henry (5), and their working cocker spaniel Elvis. Jeannie says the grandchildren are "not unlike the mischievous Elvis! Good fun all around!" She sends love to everyone.

On a cruise up the Seine River, sisters Carolyn Cockcroft '71 and Alice Cockcroft Oates '67 visited artist Claude Monet's home and garden in Giverny, France.

Lee McGeorge Durrell is "deep in the throes of the popular television series The Durrells, leading four mini-tours in Corfu in the spring, looking "for animals Gerry would have studied" in the "beautiful countryside." She is also having a busy summer at home in Jersey at the Zoo, with Strauss's Die Fledermaus at the annual fund-raising opera season, and finishing enclosures like the Lemur Walkway, which allows visitors to see lemurs up close as they jump onto pontoon boats on the lake. In the fall, she and partner Colin plan a "proper 5-day holiday" in Venice, hopefully with Lee's sister Harriet McGeorge '73, with a quick ferry ride to Corfu

CLASS NOTES

Class of 1968 50th Reunion.

1968 classmates Elinor Baker Jones, Mary Helene Lee Hamlin, Marilyn Schwinn Smith, Mary Kenworthy Thompson, Deborah Pigott Moore, Lucy Pontius Underwood, Holly Rogers, Libby Wetter Witherington, and Jan Cone Davis are thrilled to be together at Alumnae Weekend for their 50th Reunion.

for another mini-tour. Upcoming Series Three of The Durrells is "the best one yet," Lee says, as she sends love to all. Debbie Boehme Salter is "very upbeat" and "wishes we could have a reunion like our 50th last year every year." She is still working part-time in HR, enjoying the flexible hours. Debbie says that grandchildren Elyse (6) and Mason (3) are "a huge part of (her) life." She usually picks up her grands once a week from daycare and feeds them dinner: "whatever they want and ALWAYS dessert!" She, husband Ted, daughter Elizabeth and her husband, mother-in-law, and the grandchildren spent five days at Disney World in early April. Debbie "had a ball, never walking so much in my life." She reminisces, "somehow it was easier when I was younger!" This was "a treat and trip" she will always remember. Debbie also sends love to all of her classmates. Finally, Susan McNeely Nicholas and I had a nice visit in April. I got to see her new miracle surprise grandbaby Avery, born in September to older son Jeff and his wife. Susan declares enthusiastically that Avery is "such a joy and absolutely wonderful surprise." Susan is now the proud grandmother of five. My grandson West (6) just finished kindergarten, so I did not see him as much this school year, but I thank God that he still is my best reason for living.

1969

Pam McNeely Williams

usafa2@sbcglobal.net

It is with great sadness that I report Connie Loveless Friend's mom, Lucy, died recently. I will always remember the great family times we all had at their wonderful home on Walnut Grove. Brian and I visited our daughter, Ellen LeVaughn Kowalchuk '96 and her family in Germany, where her husband was attached to Ramstein AFB. We visited local sites and were deeply touched at the grave site of General Patton and the cemetery for the fallen German soldiers. Scott Williams, our oldest son, recently married love of his life Brooke Eakin, and they are living in Oakland, Tenn. Brian and I visited our youngest son, Matt Williams and wife Hannah in LA, where both are First Lieutenants at the Los Angeles Air Force Base.

Deborah Poodry has more or less retired from a long career in architecture and city and campus planning, and she is reorganizing for this new phase of life. She hopes everyone is well, will send more news later, and is thankful for our class keeping our newsletter going! Jean Phillips Lorton reports that all is well in her household. She is working for five C-level executives in a healthcare company, which manages emergency departments of hospitals. Their grandchildren are 13, 12, and almost 9. The twin daughters and their husbands are doing great!

Orlan, who is semi-retired, and Jean are happily moving and working along in this stage of their lives! Candace Keirns-Bitensky moved back to Memphis in April 2017, is very happy to be back in town, and had a great time attending the recent St. Mary's reunion. Although she doesn't consider herself retired, she is hoping to find the job of her dreams as a Spanish medical interpreter. I retired in 2012 after 37 1/2 years of teaching, with the last 35 in Guidance, and I find it difficult to comprehend how I made it to school at 7:50 a.m. every morning! I would love to hear from everyone, and, if you know of a new email address for a classmate, please send it to me.

1971

Carolyn Cockcroft

carolyn1973@verizon.net

Marietta Canale Haaga

continues to work part time at Saint John's Episcopal as recreation director, as well as doing personal training. Youngest son Martin married a high school friend, Kathy Bolding, two years ago. Son Fletcher and his wife Meg live in Chattanooga and love the outdoors. In October, Fletcher rode his bike on the Continental Divide —approximately 2,300 miles. Marietta says she is trying to keep up and would love to do something similar in the future. Marty Jones' state government has decided to let someone else have a turn at running the economic development agency that she has headed for six years; so

CLASS NOTES

Marty has started MJ Insights — consulting to public and mission-focused organizations on economic development and real estate challenges. She is looking forward to choosing projects where she can help people and places that need it the most, while having flexibility to travel, visit their daughters in Virginia and California, and enjoy their Vermont retreat. Husband Fred has retired. Marty welcomes all of us to visit her in the city or country! Maybe a future reunion location??? Julia Sprunt

Grumbles and husband Bill still live in Chapel Hill for six months of the year and in Highlands, N.C. the other six months. They enjoy some traveling as well. Most of her Chapel Hill time is spent as a UNC trustee. Her favorite "work," however, is mentoring female students and junior faculty. While in Highlands, she says she "enjoys hiking, gardening, and yes.... mah jongg!" She hopes that if any of us is ever in Chapel Hill or Highlands, we will let her know. (Okay, so now that is a second possible location for a reunion!) 2017 was a year of travel for us. Husband Chris and I joined my sister Alice and her husband Jack on a cruise on the Seine from Paris to Normandy Beach. In addition to the sites in the City of Light, our stops included Monet's garden (check off another one on my bucket list!), Van Gogh's apartment during his final days, Rouen where Joan D'Arc was executed, and finally, a jump over to London where we were treated to an entertaining talk by Winston Churchill's granddaughter. In October, Chris and I spent a week in Ballater, Scotland, just down the road from the Queen's residence at Balmoral. Sightseeing took us to Culloden, alongside Loch Ness, and the stone circles at Craigh na Dun. We enjoyed chowing on haggis, a pony ride along the Dee River, and dancing at a Cèilidh on our final night. So far, 2018 has kept both of us busy, Chris with his intense business travel and me with my music and pastoral care ministries at church.

1973

Olivia Montgomery

olivia@dogsrulememphis.com

Milner Stanton hosted our 45th class reunion dinner in April. It was so good to catch up with those who were able to attend. She also has a trip planned this summer to Prague and Budapest, and she is very excited. Sarah Peeples Hodges

Hodges had a bit of wanderlust last spring, going to Thailand for fun and India to teach. Sarah recently retired from the Memphis school system after 10 years of teaching.

Carol Richardson Hunter is spending her retirement doing environmental conservation work, playing with her three grandchildren, and looking forward to her daughter's wedding in August. In April, Ginger Hicks Smith was profiled in Emorywire, the digital magazine of the Emory Alumni Association. It noted her many achievements and 1972 classmates (top) Ashley Moore Remmers, Holly Robnett Gieszl, Meg Jemison Bartlett, (bottom) Suzanne Hauser Schlittenhart, Charlotte Day, and Sallie Bernard Armstrong on a trip to Prescott, AZ.

Sarah Peeples Hodges '73 and Ginger Hicks Smith '73

accolades, including Delta Delta Delta's Woman of the Year, having a museum named after her at the sorority's international headquarters, a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Georgia Historical Records Advisory Council, Emory's Community Builder Award, and Fraternal Chapter Adviser of the Year Award. And that's just naming a few. Not to be outdone, Nell Dickerson was featured in a prominent article St. Mary's sent out in celebration of Women's History Month in March. It reported on her trips to Africa to photograph predators and big game, including the endangered rhinoceros and other iconic creatures such as the African wild dog, giraffe, zebra, hippopotamus, baboon, and warthog. Nell is proud to say that she has also photographed the Big Five: lion, leopard, elephant, rhino, and buffalo, in Africa's largest remaining ecosystems. In addition to her preservationist work, Nell is a published photographer and architect.

CLASS NOTES

1975

Laurie Walpole

lauriewalpole@hotmail.com

The Class of 1975 is enjoying life in all kinds of ways. Nora Wingfield Tyson recently retired after 38 years in the Navy. She says when she thinks of all her experiences, people, and travels, she can't think of a career that would have been more rewarding. She and husband Wayne spent three weeks driving across the country, home to Williamsburg, and she was able to check the last of the 50 states off her list. She stays busy with golf, board work, and speaking engagements. Lisa Francisco Abitz also recently retired. She's spending a lot of time reading and also volunteered with the University of Memphis Special Collections to gather materials on the 1968 sanitation workers' strike and Martin Luther King, Jr.'s assassination. Wendi Sloane enjoys being the parent of adult children and grandmother of four, as she continues to head up her firm's intellectual property division. She and husband Steve split their time between Chicago and Ft. Collins, Colo., where she's a part of the St. Mary's Colorado contingent that includes Deborah Adelson Johns. Deborah is working on visiting all 50 states and recently added Oregon to the list, as she visited her son there. She's going to cross off Alaska when she cruises there this summer. Cissy Sights Sares is planning a trip to Senegal with her church.

She'll be part of a team of teachers who will collaborate and encourage teachers at schools there. Sally Hummel Chumney is still working as a nurse practitioner in Chattanooga and is expecting her fourth granddaughter in June. When not working or visiting grandchildren, she enjoys working in her garden. Susan Roberts Colpitts is still working at 120% but wishes she could cut it to 80%. Since she just signed up for a class in teaching meditation, maybe she can make it feel like 80%! She and husband Norman love spending time at their house on the Eastern Shore, especially when one or more of their three daughters join them. Jill Jemison Margolin and husband Peter are enjoying travel. They were recently in South Beach for a big wine festival and skied in Colorado and Alberta. Next, they're headed to San Francisco and Napa to celebrate Peter's 45 years with his company. Robin Bartusch Goertz is completely comfortable, having no milestones to report. Susan Page Gates is thrilled with new granddaughter Harper, however both she and I believe she can't possibly be old enough!

1977

Janey Butler Newton

janeybnewton@gmail.com

Lucy Walt Wepfer has two big reasons to celebrate with the birth of two new grandchildren. Son Walt and wife Betsy, who live in Memphis, had Hunter Walt in December, and daughter Mary Dabney and husband Chris had Charles Dabney a few days later. Lucy and John enjoy travelling to South Florida to visit Mary Dabney and family. Daughter Annie is studying kinesiology at Mississippi State. Daughter Joy is working for Capital One in Washington D.C. Hurray for Anne Cole Billings' daughter Mimi Billings '14, who is graduating from Ole Miss and will be starting a job at Bank3 in Memphis. Congratulations to Lisa Britt Colcolough's daughter Caitlin Colcolough '07, who is recently engaged. Sara Muirhead Shanley is enjoying her job with Texas Health Resources in Dallas. Son Michael is planning on attending graduate school in the fall, and son Stephen is looking for a new career opportunity. She says both are doing well. Jennilyn Jennings Utkov visited Sara in Dallas over Easter. Of course, our thoughts have been with Jennilyn this past year, as husband Neil lost his battle with cancer. What a blessing it was that he came to our reunion last year and was able to spend time with old friends. Some in our class have experienced the loss of a parent recently, and we extend our deep sympathy to Adele Orgill Wellford and Dione Gerber McGehee at the loss of their fathers, and to Lisa Britt Colcolough and Alicia Harwood Baker at the loss of their mothers. Email me any time with news or just to say hello!

Jan Valentine Wiygul '76, Josie McNeely Walker '76, Ginny Waller Zanca '76, and their husbands enjoy the BBQ, Beer, and Blue & White party at Alumnae Weekend.

R.P. and Josie McNeely Walker '76 with new granddaughter Jane.

CLASS NOTES

1979

Beth Brown Dunn

beth@scmsmemphis.com

The Class of '79 never disappoints. We are all so excited to be planning our 40th year reunion in 2019!

Anne Golwen Brand is happy that son John is back in town. He graduated from UT Knoxville and is working here in Memphis. Son Henry is a Junior at CBHS. He is beginning the college search.

Jeanne Thurman Cross has moved to the Sunshine State! Husband Joe took a new position in Tampa at Zeppelin USA – cool name! Daughter Elizabeth is getting married Memorial Day weekend. She is marrying a young man she has known since the third grade. Best Wishes! Terry Lupo Lebedevs is a happy mom and grandmother. Her children will all be here in Memphis soon. Daughter Camille and her husband are moving here. They are expecting a son, Liam, in September. She will teach ninth grade English at Crosstown High School. Daughter Hannah lives here with precious children Ruby and Millie. Ruby is two and a half, and Millie is 9 months. Son Rob is also here in Memphis. Barbara Stevenson is teaching seventh and eighth grades at Colonial Middle School. She faces many challenges every day. Those children are blessed to have such a caring teacher! She lives in the Evergreen area of town and loves it. Robin Rader Stein is having a November wedding! Daughter Hannah Stein '13 will be married here in Memphis and will be living in Dallas with then-husband Evan. Hannah has been teaching second grade and will be with the Kindergarten next year.

Best Wishes! Susan Browne Law will be here in May. Ben Law will be graduating from law school. He has done very well here but is headed back to a firm in Roanoke, Va. Maddie and her husband Cam will be here with precious Parker. She is almost a year old. They live in Atlanta.

Meg is here in Memphis. Susan is still mentoring and teaching in Roanoke. Her painting business has been doing very well on Etsy. Nell Archer is happy to report her twins have successfully navigated the byzantine New York high school application process! Ward will be attending Beacon, and Nora will be attending Stuyvesant. Congratulations! These schools are blessed to have you and all your many talents! Sadly, I report we lost a true treasure of a man, Joe Orgill. He was such an example of kindness to so many. Irene Orgill Smith and her sisters prepared such a beautiful tribute to their dad.

I am still at Senior Care, and I am blessed to be able to help some old friends with care for their loved ones. Our St. Mary's family is truly one of a kind. My son, Christopher is 33 years old. He lives in Nashville and works for the Golf Club of Tennessee. My son, Brook, is 30. He works here in Memphis for a heating and air company. I love having them close by, as they lived out west for a while. Get ready ladies! News coming soon about our reunion!

Class of 1978 40th Reunion.

Shelia Davis '78 happily greets 2018 Outstanding Alumna Dr. Donna Osborne Bradley '74.

Jane Tillman Germany '79 and her family at son Brad's wedding.

CLASS NOTES

1981

Katherine Lucas Hall

katherine@klhall.com

Carey Stanton

Careystanton@me.com

Congrats to everyone with graduates and weddings and grandbabies! It has been really wonderful hearing from everyone. Here are some of the highlights. Celeste Alexander Bailey retired from being a lawyer (after 25 years) about a year and half ago. She started taking classes at the Florida Wine Academy in Miami to learn about wine. "Something I've always wanted to do, but never had the time." She enjoyed it so much that she's now one of the Academy's educators. She and husband Rick live in Key Biscayne, Fla., which is perfect since son Jonathan recently graduated from University of Michigan and is working near her in Miami. Katherine Lucas Hall is selling real estate again in Greenville, S.C. Daughter Kay is pre-vet at Clemson and interning in Australia this summer for a wildlife veterinarian. Son Luke is a rising senior in high-school. Allison Burr Taylor's daughter Katie is graduating Summa Cum Laude from the University of Memphis, with a degree in Communications and Spanish. Son Will is finishing his freshman year at Auburn University. He is pursuing his passion and majoring in Aviation Management. Lisa Jaeger Schwandt gained a daughter-in-law when son Michael married Rachel in January. First grandson Chip was born to Sarah and Bill on Good Friday! Lisa is a Deacon and serves as an associate pastor at HopePointe Anglican Church in Woodlands, Texas. Laura Gussin Zinker's daughters are soon to be college graduates! Leah, a double major in English and religious studies at Kenyon, has completed her honors thesis in English and was awarded "highest honors" and received an award from the Religious Studies department. Hannah, an English major and political science minor at Skidmore, is graduating with honors as well. After a summer internship at the National Constitution Center in Philadelphia, she will enter law school in the fall at the University of Cincinnati. Ashley Richardson Sheridan is living in Madison, Wis. with husband Tony. Ashley is "interning with a fellow Aussie," learning to train and care for retired horses. She is pursuing her amazing art career with steady commissions. She just completed a 6'4" Bucky Badger UW mascot for the Bucky on Parade event in Madison. There will be 85 on display throughout the city. Mary Tully Dicken's oldest son John got married in May, and son Tully is at University of Kentucky. Claudia Broeker Egger had an amazing vacation in Iceland with her daughters in March and highly recommends a trip to the Blue Lagoon. Dominique is back from two years teaching kindergarten in Mexico City. She starts a PhD in Psychology at UT-Austin this fall. Cassie is building her portfolio in film and editing. She was in Paris for a film festival where a short film she worked on was presented. Claudia is still working at her Parish with ever increasing duties. Anne Harvey Whipple's family is "rocking along" just outside of D.C. Son Felix just finished his sophomore year at Rhodes, where he's a music production major and soccer player — he loves Rhodes and our home town! Son Kai will be a senior and is looking at colleges where he may do ROTC and continue studying Russian. Anne volunteers with foster children and does part-time work in communications for a business consultant. Cindy Willmott Belisle's daughter Sarah is a rising Senior, majoring in Communications at Furman. Mollie just completed her freshman year at University of Georgia. She plays soccer and loves UGA. Her youngest, Caroline, is a freshman in high school. She attends Holy Innocents' Episcopal School, as her sisters did. She also plays soccer. My Caroline just completed her second year at Loyola Marymount University, where she is double major in English and Spanish. She is interning in Los Angeles for a film producer before heading to Madrid for her fall semester. I am looking forward to seeing lots of you in the coming year, and, if you happen to be in Austin or Seattle, I would love to see you.

Caroline Keith is lovingly remembered by her class of 1981. "Lux in Tenebris."

1983

Bonnie Bolton Lopez

bonlopez@aol.com

I was allowed to turn in my class notes a few days late so that I could officially report the wonderful news that Brandon Garrott Morrison won the primary race for Shelby County Commission District 13. She received twice as many votes as the incumbent! If you are in her district, be sure to put Thursday, August 2 on your calendar to vote for Brandon in the general election. Amazingly, Brandon was our hostess extraordinaire for our 35th reunion dinner just days before the election. She set two beautiful tables and served a delicious southern meal of fried chicken, greens, and cornbread for us. We are grateful to her and Gee Loeb Sharp, who achieved a wonderful turnout with her witty and encouraging emails. For those of you who missed the occasion, I am happy to report that we are all just as smart and lovely as we were at St. Mary's! Cynthia Hodges Cobb made the interesting observation that at the last reunion she attended ten years ago, we chatted mostly about our children, but this time we spoke mostly about our parents. Hmm... Julie Harris Knox is an empty-nester whose daughter Megan has been married for four years and lives not far from me in a small town in Mississippi. Daughter Ellie just married last summer in Murfreesboro. She is teaching first grade in Auburn, Ala., where her husband is studying aerospace engineering in grad school. Lisa Page

CLASS NOTES

May and husband Keith are also empty-nesters and have moved to Chattanooga for his new job. Lisa transferred with her company. They are enjoying the new setting in their townhouse on the Tennessee River. Suzanne "Suzy" Woodbury has been promoted to Assistant Professor in Pediatric Physical Medicine & Rehab at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. She took up learning Italian in preparation for a trip to Italy with her daughter. She is also learning to create mosaic signs. Catherine Tripper

Jameson and hubby Dennis are happy in Colorado. Daughter Aly (27) honeymooned in Italy and France and now works at Colorado State University Veterinary Teaching Hospital. Gracie (26) is in Asheville, working on her Early Childhood Education degree and raising five-year-old twin boys. Cissy Bruce Jackson has moved to D.C. and lives in the Capitol Hill Historic District. She is working as counsel for Alabama Senator Doug Jones. Husband Steve continues to practice law with his firm's D.C. office. Beau Hebb Fontaine wrote from Atlanta where she was on location of a movie starring Mark Wahlberg

Class of 1983 35th Reunion.

Bonnie Bolton Lopez '83 in front of her farewell message to Barth Gym.

Brandon Garrott Morrison '83 with daughter Allie Morrison '08 during Brandon's run for Shelby County Commission District 13.

Classmates from 1983 celebrate their 35th reunion. Allison Wellford Parker, Bonnie Bolton Lopez, Cynthia Hodges Cobb, Beth Jennings Kubn, Kathryn Murphy Anderson, Therese Kavanaugh Despeaux, Margaret Jones Fraser, Laurie Osborn Moody, Laurie Bell Lewandowski, and Jeannie Beauregard O'Toole.

CLASS NOTES

and Rose Byrne. Beau is a set director for Paramount Worldwide Productions. She and hubby Mads celebrated his 50th birthday and their first wedding anniversary with a trip to Norway. Michelle Anderton Waterhouse toured Bangkok on a motor scooter with a local friend. She was moved by the friendly people and the beautiful temples. She continues to love her work in pharmaceutical sales with Novo Nordisk and reports that all three horses and rescue puppy "Memphis" are doing very well. While home for the reunion, I attended church with my mother at Holy Communion. Afterwards, fellowship time was held in the old St. Mary's gym, to say goodbye to the building that will soon be torn down and replaced with a beautiful new multi-purpose building. We shared memories and even wrote thoughts on the walls. The wood from the gym floor is going to be repurposed as door numbers (or the like), so that some of the old lives on in the new. I now have four grandchildren who call me Bon Bon!

1985

Polly Piper Rickard

ppiperaustin@gmail.com

Trecia Knapp Kapolsky stays busy selling real estate in San Francisco and playing with her dog in the mornings at the beach. Galya still works at Gap/Old Navy as a Graphic Designer, and Zhenya is at Restoration Hardware in finance. She travels as much as possible. She has been to Utah and Colorado and hopes to get to Jackson Hole soon.

Lucy Cheek Gordon returned to full-time employment as the new Chief Financial Officer at United Healthcare Community Plan of Arizona. The company serves about 600,000 Medicaid recipients and disabled people in the state of Arizona. It's been an adjustment! Claire turned 21, so Lucy now has two adult children. Heather Kirkpatrick Wheat's son, Rory, was appointed to the US Merchant Marine Academy class of '22. He graduates with distinction and honors from J.J. Pearce High School in Richardson. She is very proud of his accomplishment and his desire to serve our country. NealeyClare performed in Les Mis and was recently appointed as an ambassador for Camp Sweeney, the Type 1 Diabetes camp she attends each year. Reagan Grace has literally played every sport available in eighth grade and loves them all. Jeanne Marie Rea Fenster is still at AIG. Her kids are great. Sam is finishing his junior year at Rhodes and considering academia or law. She took Menashe on an excursion to Paris. Their favorite was the Catacombs. Her twins finish their freshman year in high school and have been cheering on one of their classmates who is on The Voice. Betsy Barnett spent an evening with Nancy Dilts and Meredith Cisel Milowksi in Volcano, Hawaii. Betsy lives on the Big Island in a wild area called Puna. She is on a 17-acre property that has 1000 feet of oceanfront and falls asleep to crashing waves every night. She is finishing her massage license and has studied many modalities and Myofascial trigger point release work, along with aquatic bodywork. She still surfs and searches for whales. Elizabeth Pounders Howorth opened a retail operation, Oxford Export. She is close to completing renovations on a 1930s Spanish Colonial bungalow. Dorothy is graduating from SMU and moving to Los Angeles. Eliza is at Harvard in Winthrop house for her final three years. And Callie (10th) heads for a film academy at Chapman in LA. Colleen Kavanagh and her family are doing fine. Her business is starting to get fun as she gains sales and recognition for her work, leading the industry in transparency and food safety. She gets thankful emails all the time from her core customers who have multiple food restrictions. That keeps her going, given the long hours and hard work required!

Elizabeth Simpson Alritz '86, Allison Wellford Parker '83, Bonnie Bolton Lopez '83, and Margaret Jones Fraser '87 at the recent investiture of Allison's husband, Judge Tommy Parker, to the Federal District Court of Western Tennessee.

Classmates from 1983 celebrate their 35th reunion at a dinner at Brandon's house: Gee Loeb Sharp, Jennifer Stratton Muhlbauer, Holly Walters Craft, Lela Bellows Gerald, Brandon Garrott Morrison, Liza Johnston, Lea Powell Jacobson, and Julie Harris Knox.

1987

Allison Tonkin

4altonk@gmail.com

Hearfelt congratulations to Fontaine Taylor Brown, who married John Albritton in a small, beautiful wedding, attended by Gail Borod Giacobbe, Elisabeth Meyer, and Virginia Reed Murphy, followed by a fantastic New York honeymoon! Across the pond, Anne Townes Daw's husband's research group was awarded the Nobel Prize in Physics for Gravitational Waves! Anne and Ed celebrated their 20th anniversary in Barcelona and Grenoble. In London, Anne, Georgia, and Eli joined Kim Justis Eikner's family at the Elgin Marbles. Brooks loved his first year at Princeton. Nora begins high school at St. Mary's. Weathering the British Virgin Islands storms, Mike and Melisande Filiatreau Rowe were proud to have salvaged some Sail Caribbean Divers locations and boats. After 21 years and a previously arranged sale of the business, they will return to stateside life! At BVI sailing camp again after MUS 10th grade, Missy Huettel Carter's Gus will sadly not be "retrieved" by family like last year. Post MUS graduation Joe attends University of South Carolina, while Jill Sartelle Street's Baugh Doster joins brother Jim at University of Tennessee. Sister Phoebe '21 will miss her brother and friends. At Lake Erie, Janelle Zarecor Ranieri perfects pickleball, while John III lifeguards and Lucy waits tables before attending John's alma mater, Dartmouth. Loving UNC and pledging Tri Delta, Laura Halle Nunnally's Lizzie is excited to live in Charleston before sophomore year. After sophomore volleyball, basketball cheerleading, and soccer, Anna looks forward to a Lovett School Israel trip. Laura co-chaired a Forward Arts Foundation large fundraiser and now plays a mean bridge game. Amy Rhodes Johnston completed a freezing weather triathlon! Her daughter's St. Mary's Senior Den might be in a trailer! Finishing Grace- St. Luke's seventh and fourth grades, Kurt and Ruth Cheney Patton's Bauer and Glover kept busy with sports. Ruth loves her new Pediatric Consultants practice. With Sarah married and away at college and Will leaving soon for college, Athens physical therapist Shearon Barbee Craig is almost an empty nester! After St. Mary's graduation, Courtney Morris Monaghan's Stuart '18 heads to TCU. Tom finished MUS 10th grade, and Ellie '23 loved St. Mary's 7th grade, where she played tennis with my 7th grade niece Izzie Tonkin '24. Courtney, Laura, Ann Driscoll Prince, and Fontaine were happy to comfort Lauren Moran Waddilove and help celebrate mother Pat's life. Before serving as Marshall for the NYC Sirens Women's Motorcycle Club Pride March, Mary Louise Mooney traveled to Vice President Mike Pence's Columbus, Ind. hometown to shake the hand of Erin Bailey, who, for a high school project, threw the town's first Pride Festival. ML "made garum (fish-innards sauce of Ancient Rome) – making at home not recommended, but recipe available on request". Andras, Chip, and I happily visited with Gwynne Keathley, boyfriend Randy, and parents in Memphis over Thanksgiving and with GoDaddy Product

CLASS NOTES

John Albritton and Fontaine Taylor Brown '87 at their March 2018 wedding.

Mary Louise Mooney '87 in Columbus, IN.

CLASS NOTES

Kim Justis Eikner '87 punted on the River Isis in Oxford with Laurence Goodwin '03.

Missy Huettel Carter's '87 son Joe with Jill Sartelle Street's '87 daughter Phoebe Doster '21 and Baugh Doster at the MUS Spring Formal 2018.

Class of 1988 30th Reunion.

Kim Justis Eikner '87 with Flip, Nora '22, and Brooks Eikner visiting with Anne Townes Daw '87, Georgia, and Eli in London.

CLASS NOTES

Vice President Gail while she was attending a Salt Lake City software conference. In between reading MRI exams and securing East coast distribution for our Alana-Tokaj wines, Andras and my next project is Chip's potty training!

1989

Mary Elizabeth Treadwell Pittman

mepittman71@gmail.com

Maysey Craddock has been riding a wave in her art career lately with quite a few shows this year, including solo shows in Nashville, Dallas, and one that's up until July 7 at the Museum of the University of Mississippi. In the fall, she'll have a solo show at David Lusk Gallery here in Memphis. She has also been serving on the board of ArtsMemphis, helping provide financial support to visual artists in Shelby County. Very rewarding work, she says. And life with husband Shaun is pretty perfect. Ashley Saxon Abraham is about to have an empty nest as daughter Kate is graduating and heading to Ole Miss. Son Jack is playing quarterback at Southern Miss. She's just so glad to have at least one of them in Oxford!

1991

Camellia Koleyni

ckoleyni@yahoo.com

Greetings to our class! Though I still have not turned into a master writer (my apologies to our lovely teachers Mrs.

Mulrooney and Mrs. Gill), I will attempt to do justice to the news I received from our lovely classmates. As always, it's wonderful to hear from those of who you have time to email me your updates. Alison Taylor Nooks continues to teach at Perimeter College at Georgia State University and looks forward to being closer to the campus. Husband Kirk is going to be the new president of Gordon State College in Georgia. Congratulations, Kirk!

Daughter Annison has had what sounds like a very exciting and impressive junior year. She was inducted into the National Honor Society, lettered at District Choral competition, placed at District DECA competition, and just competed in state DECA. The twins are doing well and "conquering kindergarten." Alison's father is "still 'hanging in there' and never complains". Megan Saxon Murphree states, "I officially have a teenager" in the house, since son Charlie turned 13. She also was preparing for her annual girls' trip to the beach with her college friends. Sounds like it will be a big group – 15 friends! Heather Pearson

Chauhan is giving back to St. Mary's in a unique and important way – by giving talks and leading discussions with girls in the 8th, 10th, and 12th grades on sexuality, consent, and other related topics. She states it's been an honor and a privilege to speak with the girls in these classes. In fact, she is also giving the same talks to the same grades at Hutchison. Here in Nashville, I continue to spend time working in the Vanderbilt urgent care clinics and serving as a faculty mentor/coach for interprofessional teams of students from Vanderbilt's medical school and nurse practitioner program, the UT social work program, and the Lipscomb University pharmacy program. Last November, Vineet and I had an opportunity to travel to Colombia and had a fantastic time visiting Bogota, the coffee region of Armenia, and the coastal city of Cartagena. We were able to experience the kindness of the people, the beauty of the country with its many ecosystems, and the amazing culture and coffee.

1988 classmates Allison Garrott Braswell, Beth Gowen Gillespie, Mary Lacy Bell, Emily Ragen Smith, Moriah McStay Lee, Anna McQuiston Holtzclaw, and Leigh Vaughan Jaimes celebrate their reunion at Alumnae Weekend.

1993

Jaime Newsom

Jaime.newsom@gmail.com

Cheers to 25 years for the Class of '93! It was wonderful to be back at St. Mary's for our 25-year reunion in April! I attended chapel with members of our class, sang the familiar hymns, prayed the St. Mary's prayer, spoke with former teachers, and watched our classmate Katherine McQuiston Bush lead the school in prayer. Our class party, hosted by Christian Turner and organized by countless members of our class, was so much fun! We genuinely missed all those who could not attend, and we will hold you to your promises of attending our 30-year reunion in 5 years! Katie Zanone Webb, in addition to chairing the St. Mary's Outstanding Alumna Selection Committee, has been living the good life! Katie and her husband Chris recently took an amazing trip to Belize, and they are learning to sail! Lisa Bratton Chiles loves being a stay at home mom to her three little ones – Jack (2), Linden (2) and Margaret (4). Lisa and her husband Brett are looking forward to going to the beach and the lake this summer. Christian Turner loves being a mom to baby Owen, who will be 1 year in July. He is such a precious, happy little guy! Allison Keltner Musick continues to play a lot of tennis and is always looking for St. Mary's girls for fun doubles matches! Her son William will enter Pre-K at Grace-St. Luke's in Aug 2018. Gretchen Wollert McLennon and her husband Kojo are spending the spring project-managing the addition of a screened in porch and new patio onto their house. They're hoping to be sitting outside in style very soon! Courtney Mainardi Burger and husband Charlie are still living in Houston, TX raising their children – Alexis (11), Ellie (11), and William (8). She was so disappointed that she couldn't come to the reunion and says she misses and loves us all! Becky Rafter shared that less than three months after finishing treatment for breast cancer, she travelled to Indonesia as part of a political leadership exchange, supported by the State Department, to foster innovation between the U.S. and Southeast Asia to tackle issues of our time. She was in a remote area of Sulawesi Province, unauthorized for U.S. travel due to "religious violence". The violence was actually political in nature, stemming from large mining companies and factories militarizing themselves as they took over indigenous farming land in the rainforest. Each day she met with women-led, grassroots organizations addressing indigenous farmers' rights, the protection of natural resources, and the recovery of local villages from the economic devastation that came when Suharto opened up the country to global companies which subsequently exploited much of the country's rural areas. She visited the rainforest, met the great-great-granddaughter of a queen who outsmarted the Dutch colonizers, and tried on traditional clothing made of bark. People who honor that they came from the land have a hard time having it taken away from them, especially since they need the herbs for medicine. She met with the governor of Central Sulawesi and encouraged him to invest in exporting their innovative leadership development models and was inundated with gifts from a female member of Indonesian Parliament. She fell in love with the joy she found there. On the final day, she gave her presentation at a conference of youth-led organizations working against natural resource exploitation. She spoke about the work of Georgia WAND and the plight of rural southern communities facing radioactive contamination in water and air from the nuclear weapons and extractive nuclear energy industries. Afterward, scads of participants shared their shock about what she already knew: how similar their circumstances and experiences are to some southern, rural, predominately Black U.S. communities. Sounds like Becky is literally changing the world! Prayers for her continued recovery. Leigh Weinberg Abbey continues to be busy with work and family. Van (13) is a rising 8th grader at MUS and Bo (16) is a rising junior at MUS. Leigh and Rob will be celebrating their 19th anniversary in July! They're looking forward to a relaxing summer and a few small trips. Kathryn Brookfield and her family went on a fun Disney cruise over spring break with Kathryn's sister Anne-Morgan Brookfield Morgan '99 and her family, as well as Kathryn's parents. She will be spending a good bit of time in Cashiers, N.C. with her parents this summer too. Her boys love to fish, so they're all going to try their hand with some fly-fishing.

CLASS NOTES

Class of 1993 25th Reunion.

Lots of tennis is in the plans for this summer as well! Juli Elam Hurdle is either on the soccer field or in a Pilates studio these days. Her boys play soccer and she shared that life is good and busy. She is excited to be a part of bringing Pilates and Yoga to Broad Avenue Arts District. She is opening a studio with a close friend and current St. Mary's mom. She is also starting renovations on her home, which was built in 1912! Alexia Fulgham Crump is very excited to share that her daughter Catherine will be starting St. Mary's in the fall. Catherine will be a Turkey! She will attend St. Mary's Place, which is the St. Mary's 2-year-old program, and Alexia is looking forward to being back on campus more regularly! She is still working at the DA's office in Memphis. Amelia Treadwell Howard shared that she has a new job working at Chi Omega headquarters. Her son George recently finished his freshman year at MUS. He is kicking for the football team and playing soccer. Her daughter Anna Laura just finished 6th grade at Christ Methodist and is busier than ever playing every sport she can fit into her schedule. Amelia and her husband Nathan celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary this year. As for me, Jake and I live in Charlotte, N.C. with our 3 boys – Jacob (9), Alexander (7) and Matthew (3). We stay busy with the boys, and life is full, fun, and happy. Charlotte offers great proximity to the mountains and the beach, which we love! This summer we're taking a family trip to eastern Canada, 1993 friends Lisa Bratton Chiles, Bradley Ray Crawford, Alexia Fulgham Crump, Kathryn Brookfield, and Kristen Mistretta Wilson.

CLASS NOTES

The Class of 1993 celebrates their reunion. Top Row (L to R): Leigh Weinberg Abbey, Amelia Treadwell Howard, Allison Keltner Musick, Katherine McQuiston Bush, Aparna Murti Giwens, Brooke Sarden, Julie Bhattacharya Peak, Melissa Goldate, Lisa Bratton Chiles, Kelly Cox, Kristen Mistretta Wilson, Carrie Evans Benitone, Gretchen Wollert McLennan, Mindy Kronenberg, Bradley Ray Crawford, Alexia Fulgham Crump. Middle Row (L to R): Kathryn Brookfield, Alison Simmons Boyd, Katie Zanone Webb, Kirsten Brown Buerkle, Katie Moran Lindenschmidt, Juli Elam Hurdle. Bottom Row (L to R): Christian Turner, Ginny Robinson Burbank.

Melissa Goldate '93, Amelia Treadwell Howard '93, Katherine McQuiston Bush '93, and Allison Keltner Musick '93 sport their Turkey gear.

The Class of 1993 enjoys their 25th reunion. Top Row (L to R): Amelia Treadwell Howard. Middle Row (L to R): Christian Turner, Leigh Weinberg Abbey, Gretchen Wollert McLennan, Kristen Mistretta Wilson. Bottom Row (L to R): Kirsten Brown Buerkle, Kelly Cox, Brooke Sarden, Katherine McQuiston Bush.

Alexia Fulgham Crump '93 and daughter Catherine enjoy the Alumnae Weekend Pops & Play party.

CLASS NOTES

Cristina Brescia Michta '70, Chelsea Michta '09, Elizabeth Cochran Hill '95, and Ashley Goldstein Allen '95 at the wedding of Emily Cochran O'Dell '97.

Asha Kumar Veeraswamy '89, Dhevi Kumar Broecker '95, Calder Britt Clark '95, Holland Schatz Burns '91, and Leigh Vaughan Jaimes '88 together in Charleston.

Gabrielle Rose Chang '95 visited with the St. Mary's swim team before the team traveled to Nashville for the state championship.

where my mom is from, to visit cousins and show the boys all the natural beauty of that area. Thanks so much to everyone for keeping in touch!

1995

Carrie Sue Casey Hanback

carrie.sue.casey@gmail.com

Hi turklets – coming to you live from suburban Richmond, Va., where my husband is trying to convince me to buy a 12-passenger van. Not kidding. I was excited to catch up with Amina Dilawari, who lives in High Point Terrace in Memphis with her husband Erik and their two littles Nadiya (2) and Noora (7 months). She is the Senior Marketing Director at ALSAC/St. Jude, as well as a member of the St. Mary's Alumnae Board! Ebony Welch was promoted to Annual Giving Coordinator at Jackson Academy, and she became a certified Pure Barre teacher. Her adorable son will also head off to college later this year! Gabrielle Rose became the Executive Director of The Rose Foundation, an organization her dad started to give back to Memphis. She has reclaimed her maiden name personally and professionally, and she and her little girl Annie (4) are embracing this new life chapter. They often travel from LA to Memphis to help raise funds for the Mike Rose Natatorium project, a renovation of the pool where she grew up swimming, that will also be a Center for Water Safety Excellence for underserved Memphis youth. Cybil Mah Lieu and Katherine Crone Wilson are busy in Atlanta holding down the fort at home and excelling in the office as well. They shared that Dawn Law attended Coachella, or as I have heard it's now called "Beychella." There's a spate of new jobs. Morgan Chiapella Roselle started one that allows her to work from home and play with her new puppy Ellie. Olivia Ralston began at a digital media startup there in London, and Simone Kiersky Coyle is now a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Joseph L. Toth on the US Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims. Sarah Carlson Landers switched jobs to focus on pain management – so no more late night surgery cases. She and her husband celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary this year, and are working on their dance moves by taking dance lessons. Apparently Sarah likes to lead, which causes arguments at professional galas. Hilarious. In Seattle, Dhevi Kumar Broecker joined the business strategy practice at Grant Thornton, focusing on healthcare and development. Children Ranga (5) and Ambika (2) are obsessed with Ghostbusters (of course)! Dhevi had a mini St. Mary's reunion over the holidays with Calder Britt Clark, Holland Schatz Burns '91, and Leigh Vaughan Jaimes '88 at the home of her sister Asha Kumar Veeraswamy '98 in Charleston. They FaceTimed me, and it was delightful. Sonia Torrey is fast approaching graduation for her Master's in Clinical

CLASS NOTES

Mental Health Counseling in Memphis, and is now the proud mama of a curious kitten named Theo. Aspiring nurse Elizabeth Cochran Hill was the Outstanding Science Student for her Anatomy & Physiology lab (go Liz!). She's looking forward to a summer of making and freezing meals for when she officially starts nursing school this fall. Thanks, Mr. Tanner! Allison Roberts is taking full advantage of her new 4WD car. She spent a month at Bowra Sanctuary as a volunteer guest manager – for the 8th year! She described the Australian outback as having a beauty "all its own, even when it is in drought." Allison is looking forward to some exciting work later this year, when she will serve as a field assistant to her ornithology professor in a remote area in Limmen National Park. Lisa Mulrooney Coombs and husband Glen sold their house in record time (thanks to realtor extraordinaire Lee Davidson Holt and her husband Kevin). She and Glen bought 9 acres of land in North Mississippi, where they are building a home! I recommended that she populate the land with goats, because who doesn't love goats? Murff Oates Galbreath has successfully moved her family of five humans three times in ten months during their home renovation. Just writing that made me need a martini. Extra olives. She deserves a diploma for this. Michelle Pao Levine is finding great fulfillment in the mentoring role she's taken on at Restaurant Mosa. Daughter Julia (18 months) is spunky, with a real "joie de vivre" (hmm... where is that from?), and son Matthew (almost 5) is laid-back like her husband Mark. Both munchkins attend Temple Israel's Early Learning Center's daycare, while she's killing it in the restaurant world. In Philly, Natasha Heflin Davis is about to blow the minds of her daughter Amelia's 2nd grade Brownie Troop by baking brownies in hollowed-out oranges on their upcoming camping trip. I need to try this pronto. Allison McConomy Davenport is still CEO of United Healthcare of PA. She is also serving as a Court Appointed Special Advocate volunteer, representing children in foster care cases. That is such important work, Allison! Her girls Abby (9) and Biffy (6) are doing great – with Biffy loving gymnastics and soccer and Abby crushing on her hero Ruth Bader Ginsburg. Kathryn Wiseman moved to Washington, DC, but the real news is that she went on 20 trips in the past year. Highlights include: the Taj Mahal, Peru, hiking the Inca Trail, Dublin, Rome for a night just to dine at Salumeria Roscioli, an ice hotel in Finland, and a safari in Kenya. However, the pinnacle of her travels was her trip to Richmond to visit me, where we made steak and watched The Crown. So fancy. Also an adventurer, Ashley Goldstein Allen went to China for business, where she consumed both worms and a scorpion. Not Salumia Roscioli, but it'll do. Elizabeth Schatz Passarella added a third baby, Samuel Powers Passarella, to her pack on March 28, 2018. Yes, she is aware that Samuel Powers is the fictional name of Screech from the iconic show "Saved by the Bell." Hallie Bourland Wagner had her third baby in May 2018. As for me, I had my third, Berta Gradwohl Hanback, on September 16, 2017 — her dad's 40th birthday. We call her "Bertie," after my beloved grandmother. I love having three tumbling creatures around our house, and am fitting in my new business venture during that mythical thing called free time. Ashley and I kicked up our heels when she visited last summer, and Tricia Graue and I also had a fun visit replete with farmers' market finds. I got to see Elizabeth Cochran Hill and Ashley Goldstein Allen in February in Nashville at Emily Cochran O'Dell's '97 wedding, where we danced to many a 90s hip-hop tune with a gaggle of other St. Mary's girls. Our class pulled together to support each other several times this past year, whether we were providing meals for a classmate battling a health issue or sending love to someone who had lost a parent. As we continue along our journeys, I am glad that we remain connected like this.

1997
Hollye Ferguson Stigler
hollye.stigler@gmail.com

We have a lot of exciting news to share this year. Emily Cochran O'Dell was married in February to Darrick, and our '97 classmates Jodie Baker Fasullo, Valentine Shands-Puppione Cochran, and Jennifer Dickson Freidenstein were there to celebrate with Emily. She will continue to live in Nashville and still works as the Director of Admissions and Recruiting for the Master of Accountancy program at Vanderbilt. Adrianne Gray Bugg's interior design business, Pillar & Peacock, has enjoyed a lot of growth in the past year and now includes three different locations. Congrats, A! She is reconnecting with fellow SMSers Marion Forsyth Werkheiser and Carrie Sue Casey Hanback '95, who also live in Richmond. Paige Frazier has been promoted to Systems and Budget Manager for the Kiawah Island Club, where she has worked for the past 17 years. She manages the business for the golf and beach resort. How I'd love to have Paige's window view every day! And from the West Coast, Rebecca Hanover Kurzweil has written a novel, THE SIMILARS, that will be published in January 2019 with a second book to follow in 2020. I can't wait to pick up a copy! Hala Khuri Jimenez welcomed twins, beautiful daughters Isabel and Elena, in December. Congratulations to Hala and her husband Mario. And Clare Levy Clarke writes that she welcomed a son, Owen, in November. At six months old, he is easy going and full of smiles, a perfect addition to their family. Congrats to Clare and her husband Robin.

CLASS NOTES

My family is ready for the change in routine that comes with summertime, wishing you all a wonderful summer!

1999

Kelly Buckner Dallas
kellybdallas@gmail.com

Thanks for all the updates! I love hearing what all of you are up to — all over the world!

Susan Wunderink Mettes is now living in Burundi, Africa. She says they even see the occasional hippo in the street and have more mangoes, avocados, and bananas than they know what to do with! She is working as an independent contractor at the moment doing writing and research but hopes to get back into behavioral economics sometime soon.

Erin Bower Jarrett is back in Nashville and has a new job there but is still doing pelvic health physical therapy. She is also working on her Pilates certification with Polestar. Good luck, Erin! Ashley Gaillard Clark is really excited about her new job with the Libra Foundation in San Francisco.

Her son is now four and a half and is best buds with Sidney Hawkins Gargiulo's and Brittany Blockman Pelletier's kids. Love that you all live out in San Francisco together!

Hilary Dinkelspiel Dona is enjoying married life and stays busy working as an employment attorney in New York. She's looking forward to a trip to Indonesia this summer! Rachel Bearman Plevak is also a practicing attorney — a prosecutor — in Atlanta and has been for the past 12 years. She and her husband, Dan, have two children Oliver (3) and Cece (1). Leigh Ferguson, another attorney in our group, was just recently promoted to Chief Legal Counsel at her company, Commerce and Insurance, in Nashville. Congrats, Leigh! Kellyn Griffith Kropinak, also an attorney, is still loving being in Durham, N.C., with her parents and sister also living there. Kellyn writes that she is expecting a little girl in a few weeks. I know that will be so fun to have both a girl and boy. Congrats, Kellyn! In other baby news, Annie McLaren Neufeld welcomed her second little girl, Bethany, in March. They are all enjoying having a sweet baby around, especially big sister, Isabel. Erica Smith welcomed baby Fulton in November, and she and her husband, Bob, think he is too good to be true! Erica is also gearing up for Memphis in May BBQ Fest and hoping to take the Smokin' Spiders to victory! Anne-Morgan Brookfield Morgan and her husband Michael also participate in BBQ Fest festivities along with Erica. Anne-Morgan writes that she is in her 15th year with Lilly focusing on diabetes treatment. She is busy with her two precious girls, as well as serving on the vestry at Holy Communion. Courtenay Adams just completed her 13th tax season at Dixon Hughes Goodman and feels relieved. Rightly so! She has an amazing trip to Portugal planned in a few weeks. Rebecca Fones Rhea is still busy with her two girls and writes that she, Jenny Jones

Erin Little Do '98 and Jamie Sartelle DeNovo '98 enjoy time with their children at the Pops & Play party during Alumnae Weekend 2018. Middle Row (L to R): Eve DeNovo and Claire Do '29. Bottom Row (L to R): Samantha Do '30, Charlie DeNovo, and Barnes DeNovo.

Savage, and Meg Parker Prewitt recently had dinner with Mrs. Leigh Mansberg. So fun! Anne-Morgan, Courtenay, Jenny, and I also got to catch up recently at Alumnae Chapel. We are counting down until next year when we will celebrate our 20th reunion! Go ahead and mark your calendars now to be there! As for me, we are doing well but have had a busy year. Mae is in third grade at St. Mary's and is still loving it. We decided to move Julia to the Bodine School this year for first grade. Bodine specializes in teaching children with dyslexia, and it has been such a wonderful experience for Julia. We're very thankful to have such a great resource in Memphis! John is two and a half, goes to "school" at Christ Methodist, and somehow gets cuter every day. I'm still working in human resources for Bryce Corporation but have reduced my hours to part-time and am thankful for that flexible schedule in this phase of life! Thanks again for sending in all the news! Hope you all have a wonderful summer!

2001

Lauren Anderson Stone
laurenandersonstone@gmail.com

Victoria Corder and Tony welcomed son Charles Ellis Langelier on November 29, and he is "a joyous handful." After six months of maternity leave, Victoria is back at her law firm in New York City and enjoying having a nanny! Jacquette Sallis "Si"

CLASS NOTES

Class of 1998 20th Reunion.

1998 classmates Allyn Jaqua Lowell, Carly Hansen, Monica Wilson Barton, Nupur Sidhu Bal, and Allison Martin enjoy Alumnae Weekend.

Jodie Baker Fasullo '97, Valentina Shands-Puppione Cochran '97, Erin Bower Jarrett '99, Laura Freeman Rouse '99, Anne-Morgan Brookfield Morgan '99, Elizabeth Cochran Hill '95, Emily Cochran O'Dell '97, Jenny Jones Savage '99, Jennifer Dickson Freidenstein '97, Carrie Sue Casey Hanback '95, Kathryn Brookfield '93, and Ashley Goldstein Allen '95 celebrate Emily's wedding.

1998 classmates Nupur Sidhu Bal, Carly Hansen, Ashley Bellet, Katie Broer Parr, Laurin Maddux, Monica Wilson Barton, and Allison Martin Nolen at Alumnae Weekend.

Katie Garrett Harris '00, Laurin Maddux '98, and Courtney Taylor Humphreys '01 show their Turkey spirit.

CLASS NOTES

Tami Sawyer '00 during her run for Shelby County Commission District 7.

Kaundler Laws Fuller was born to Elizabeth Laws Fuller and Byron in Nîmes, France, on December 9. She was named after Liz's grandfather, Fontaine Sallis "Si" Hill, who was a perpetual deacon at Holy Communion. They still live on a farm outside of Montpellier and would love a visit from any classmates passing through! Carey King Slocum and her family enjoyed Festival season in Nola, as always. Walker and Davis are 4, and Henry turns 2 in June. Carey is still working in real estate development as Director of Development Finance at HRI Properties, where she has been for the past nine years. Courtney Taylor Humphreys can't quite get her mind around the fact that she's about to have a FIRST grader. They are enjoying coming out of the baby stage and doing fun things like soccer games and swim lessons. Her middle child, Heloise, was a flower girl at St. Mary's graduation in May! Nishta Mehra has accepted a high school teaching position in the English Department at Phoenix Country Day School, so she, Jill, and Shiv are moving to Arizona! Her mom, Veena, is moving too, and a close friend of Nishta's works at PCDS, so they are excited to have some friends there. Nishta's new book, Brown, White, Black: An American Family at the Intersection of Race, Gender, Sexuality, and Religion, is slated to come out in February 2019. She will be doing some travel as part of the book tour process and would love to get to see some Class of '01 ladies who are scattered in various places around the country! Stay tuned for book tour details! Sara Beth Dike Frye's husband, Jason, finishes up his time at the Air Force Air Command & Staff College in Montgomery in June, and then they're moving to Dayton, Ohio for his job. It's a big change, but they're looking forward to the adventure – although not the cold! Patrick (6) is excited because they have a curling center in Dayton, and he got hooked on the sport during the winter Olympics! Kathy Chen Budde is working in Alumni and Development at WashU after being at the Campus YMCA at WashU for 10 years. She is an Associate Director in Alumni Relations and plans events that engage alumni, including two big reunion weekends in April and May. She is also keeping busy with her two precious little girls. After 9 years in Memphis working in the arts at the Dixon and Crosstown Arts, Emily Harris Halpern and her family started a new adventure in January and moved to Paris! Her husband, Joel, is consulting with French startups on branding and marketing for the US market, and Jackson and Rowan are attending international bilingual school. They are exploring their new home and enjoying all that Europe has to offer! Louise Chandler Biedenharn got a job in Greenville as a staff attorney at Womble, Bond, Dickinson doing financial litigation. She is super thrilled not to be making a two hour commute to work anymore! She and Jay, Dorothy, and Lucia are settling in after a year but missing Memphis. Caroline Gardner Donlin is still in Chicago and celebrating a full year of wedded bliss. She got promoted to Director at work and is looking forward to celebrating Kate McCalla's wedding in Baltimore this summer! Stephanie Vieron Leary and family are doing well in Baltimore, where she seems to have finally figured out how to get kids to school and herself to work...on time! Life not living on campus at school has been an adjustment, but they are loving their new house and neighborhood. James just turned 5 and will start kindergarten in the fall, and William is almost 2 and "pretty much runs the show." Sounds about right! Joni Gossett Oates and her family moved last summer from Collierville into her childhood neighborhood and are loving it. She is taking this summer away from work to be with Joanna (19 months) and feeling incredibly fortunate. Liz Keltner-Nagy married Matt Nagy on May 19 on a beautiful ranch in the mountains of Colorado. Victoria Corder, Kate Metcalf Sullivan and Margaret McQuiston '02 were able to attend. As an LCSW and Certified Yoga Therapist, Liz had a vision of creating an integrated wellness center that supports people in cultivating health and wholeness in their lives from a mind, body, and spirit perspective. Her vision came to fruition in January 2016 when she opened hOME Collective in Denver, which houses a variety of holistic practitioners, a therapeutic yoga space, and community space for workshops and trainings. All offerings support individuals to create their own, unique paths towards wellness and wholeness in life. Lauren Jacks Gamble and her family bought an 1830s plantation home in Murfreesboro that was a field hospital and the site of a cavalry clash during the Battle of Stones River in the Civil War. They are enjoying restoring it! Clifton and the boys and I are doing well. Anderson will be in SK at PDS next year, and Waring can't wait to join his big brother when he starts their Young Knights program in the fall. We are all thrilled to be expecting a baby sister in October! I hope she will be a St. Mary's girl and experience the love of learning and life-long friendships that it has given to me!

CLASS NOTES

2003

Laurence Goodwin

slaurencegoodwin@gmail.com

Alexandra Bicks

alexandra.bicks@gmail.com

As usual, this has been a busy year for the Class of '03. It's been so lovely to hear everyone's updates – so many accomplishments! Abby Yandell Talbot had a little girl in November named Winn (Winifred after her grandmother). She is loving her job working at Ruch Clinic. Suzie Loveless graduated with her MA in Economic Development in December and is spending a month in Central America this summer and volunteering for a week doing women's health training in a small village in Honduras. Carey Faber Campbell, Rob, and their daughter Dottie are moving back to Memphis for Carey's new job at Plastic Surgery Group of Memphis which starts in August. Rachel Bresinger Ashkenazi and her family are still in Israel. Rachel has just started her new job at Nestle Israel as the Executive Assistant to the VP of Supply Chain Management and Distribution. Lauren Coleman Robinson is busy finishing up her pediatrics residency and is happy to be starting with the emergency medicine group at LeBonheur in July. Jess Pfeffer is now Dr. Pfeffer, having completed a PhD in English Literature at Tufts with a thesis entitled: Spectral Materiality: Theoretical Approaches to Materialism in Early Modern England. Nicole Henderson Trenholme finishes her Emergency and Critical Care Residency at University of Missouri in July and then heads off to the University of Georgia that month. She's looking forward to working with species other than dogs and cats again, after five years of working only with small animals. Emily Edwards is heading back to school to take pre-reqs to apply to PT school next summer. She was able to travel to New Zealand earlier this year for a 300 mile cycling trip across the South Island which she says was incredibly beautiful. She is on the board of a local triathlon club, Memphis Thunder Racing, and is prepping for another 70.3 Ironman in June and the Marine Corps Marathon in October. Stephanie Dunavant Loftin married Taylor Loftin this past March at the Hunt Phelan. Greta Lewis, Vi West, Rachel Kratzke, and Stephanie's sister Michelle Dunavant '08 all attended the Liz Keltner-Nagy '01 and husband, Matt Nagy.

Lizzie Widdicombe '01, the Louise T. Archer Artist in Residence.

CLASS NOTES

Class of 2003 15th Reunion.

English Department Chair Shari Ray is happy to see Nicole Dennis Bremseth '03, Lizzie Gill '03, and Lauren Coleman Robinson '03 at Alumnae Weekend.

Assistant Head of School Laura Leathers and Shari Ray enjoy seeing Saira Khan Shaikh '03 and Lizzie Gill '03 at Alumnae Weekend.

wedding. Stephanie reports that life on the Gulf Coast is "still excellent!" Mary Austin Mays Smith welcomed twins in December and plans to finish her pediatric (dental) residency in August. She will then go back to working part time at Brink and White Pediatric Dental Associates. So if you need a dentist for your little ones, now you know where to go! Melissa Malone Teague is still in sunny Albuquerque; she recently finished her first trail half marathon and signed up for a 25K in June. Elizabeth Fong Honey recently started a new nursing position in the PACU at a same-day surgery center affiliated with Rush University Medical Hospital in Chicago. She is still running a lot and will take on the Chicago Marathon this October with her husband Brandon. They plan to travel to Alaska and New York City this summer and then will be hiking Machu Picchu and going to Peru over Labor Day weekend. Meanwhile, Catherine Culvahouse Fox reports that life is still good in San Diego, while Carmen Carson Gorospe is working as a private chef and freelance consultant in LA. Brianna Winsett Chapman notes that her daughters are the only ones with exciting news (ed: I'm sure that's not true!); Grace will be four in May, and June will be one in June. Saira Khan Shaikh is still in Pittsburgh with her husband and son, working in the endocrine department at Allegheny General. Camille Herman Boyle is still working at Town Center Orthopedics in Reston as an outpatient orthopedic Physical Therapist in Northern Virginia. She competed in her first Crossfit competition on a team of four women this past November and placed 3rd. She and her husband are beyond excited and grateful to be expecting a little boy in July. Katie Hobson Novikoff and husband Chris welcomed baby Hobbs in November. Lizzie Gill is still running her tutoring company, No Limits Tutoring, which is busier than ever. Special thanks to Lizzie for hosting a party for our class during the reunion weekend in April! As for me, I finish my teacher training in Classics at King's College London this summer and plan to teach and continue as a university counsellor at a boarding school in England next academic year. Excitingly, I'm also going to be doing some curating and gallery education in Oxford in the autumn as well as putting together a new show with my theatre company, Thistledown Theatre, for touring in 2018-2019.

2005

Sarah Atkinson Ball

sarah.atkinson.ball@gmail.com

Lauren Wiygul Riley

lauren.w.riley@gmail.com

Hi, everyone! It's been a big year! We'll let Laura Holladay Fletcher kick us off with all her fun news! Laura writes, "My younger daughter, Molly Ann Mae, celebrated her first birthday and had her first taste of cake (chocolate was the obvious choice for us) on April

CLASS NOTES

15th. I celebrated my sixth anniversary with Blackbaud in March. We are about to hatch several baby chickens. Elspeth Runyan came to our house in Meridianville, Ala. for a quick visit around Thanksgiving. We are planning a trip to Memphis at the end of July, which will be a first time trip for my husband and daughters. We will definitely be going to Huey's, Central BBQ, and the zoo." Miles Kueffner is living it up in the desert. She writes, "Las Vegas is doing well, and I'm doing my part to continue to help enhance and save lives through tissue and organ donation!" After lots and lots of shopping, Marianne Rizk Schnall and new husband Daniel are very happy to have bought a house in St. Louis. Hillary Edwards Musice made the jump into the nonprofit sector to run communications for the Center for Nonprofit Management in Nashville. In this new role, she works to support other nonprofits in Tennessee, and she still dedicates her free time to the Girls State program, her unpaid side hustle for the last 15 years. Nora Kahn will start a clerkship in the fall for the Honorable Andrew J. Guilford of the Central District of California. In NYC, Katie Brookoff is "drawing a lot of cartoons, many of which include hippo puns." On the side, Katie is finishing her first year in social work school and "continuing to further [her] very serious career as a 3-year-old birthday party entertainer." Rebecca Harris is also in NYC, hanging out and working a lot. Falconer

Robbins moved from New York to Charlotte, N.C., in March. She is getting married in October! Rainey Ray Segars is still very happily at St. Mary's, although starting in August, she will be in a new role. As wonderful as working with our fantastic alumnae community has been, she is returning to her first love of theology and religion as St. Mary's Assistant Chaplain. She can't wait to be in the classroom. Son Teddy is in speech therapy, after a wonderful lunchtime consultation with the very-wise Catie Jane Berger Myers, and at 30 months, Teddy finally calls her "mama." Totally worth it, she says! Our class welcomed a lot of new babies this year, heavily concentrated in the state of Tennessee. James Connell Rainer VI was born to Faye Kenner Rainer on December 19th. Big sister Ruthie (3) loves her little brother and built in live baby doll (for now — Baby James hasn't started taking her toys yet). Elizabeth "Lizzie" June Yacoubian was born to Laura Jennings Yacoubian on December 27th. Grace Jensen Knight is adjusting to "the three kid life" following the birth of Philip Jensen Knight on April 2nd. Erin Nolen Brafford and husband Penn have left Chicago and are now living in Chattanooga. Erin says, "Although I miss my NBC Chicago Med family, I am so happy to have returned to Tennessee. It's simply home!" She and Penn welcomed twins, William "Pennson" and Magnolia Scott, on January 21st. Erin says that she's very thankful she could lean on 2004 classmates Connor Trott, Saradasri Karri, Atina Rizk Stavropoulos, and Emily Schwimmer Cohen celebrate Saradasri's wedding.

Lauren Kennedy Dake for twin advice. Lauren is "just livin' the mom life. Wiping bottoms, wiping noses, preparing our girl for kindergarten, navigating toddlerhood with the twins (whoa.), and holding on to all the baby snuggles that Walter will give me." Sarah Atkinson Ball is delighted to have sister Ann Atkinson Schnuerer '07 back in Memphis and loves spending time with her baby niece, Lee. Barbara Phillips Hunsicker and husband David are expecting a baby girl in September! Weezie Cannon Finlay and husband Stuart are expecting a baby in August, and soon will be down-the-street neighbors with Claire Arnett Sumner and husband Andy. We also have some newlyweds! Tea Stoecklein Wells married Henry Wells in November; she also passed her boards last year for her Pediatric Specialist Certification in physical therapy. Megan Bailey Constantino married Christopher Constantino in April. Megan's maid and matron of honor were Erica Evans and Emily Templeton Gray, and Elizabeth

Batchelor Calkins was a bridesmaid. This summer, Megan and Christopher will move to Tallahassee, Fla., where Christopher will be an assistant professor at Florida State University. Erica and Elizabeth got even more quality time together shortly after Megan's wedding — Erica visited Elizabeth in Okinawa and also made stops in Tokyo, Kyoto, Hiroshima, and Osaka! Erica "was grateful to spend time with her friend on another continent and different time zone." Elizabeth writes, "Military life can be crazy, but I'm so thankful for the love and support of sweet friends like Erica, who just came to visit me in Japan!" Elizabeth and husband William won't be in Okinawa much longer — they "are so sad to be leaving tropical island life behind to move to the arctic north that is Harrisburg, Pa." Elizabeth graduated with a Master's degree in Teaching English as a Second Language in December.

CLASS NOTES

2007

Caitlin Clark

caitlin.michaela@gmail.com

Caitlin Colcolough

caitlin.colcolough@gmail.com

Lauren Lieberman just got engaged on May 4th. Zina Kumok and her husband are buying a home and moving back to Indianapolis. Caitlin Colcolough is still living and working in Nashville and just got engaged to her long-time boyfriend at the end of February. He is also a twin! Virginia Dickinson LaSala is still living in Conn. working in Finance. She and her husband Steve are expecting their first child (a boy) in July. Anna Bearman just finished her junior year at Memphis College of Art. She was chosen by City Leadership (the group in charge of Choose901) to be a part of a small group designing and installing murals around the city. Their first spot will be in Cooper-Young. Chelsea Cook is currently on a fellowship as a staff attorney at a non-profit group in Durham, N.C., working on criminal defense and prisoner litigation work. Hallie Flanagan is graduating from Memphis Law and will take the bar exam this summer. Melissa Graunke Decosimo and her husband had twin girls at the end of May.

Kate Foster Lindsey and her husband moved to the Atlanta area this past fall. She is Site Manager for a program called Refugee Family Literacy. She and a few other families are opening a primary care clinic called Ethne Health, which will serve the large refugee population in Clarkston, Ga., and she will be helping with development and marketing for the clinic. Elizabeth Womack is finishing her Masters in Psychology and married her long-time beau this May. Elizabeth Summitt Gordon, Caroline Fentress, Erin Fowler, Mary Catherine Holliday '08, and Olivia Summitt '13 were her bridesmaids, and Anna Bearman did the makeup for the ceremony. Caitlin Clark is moving to Cleveland, Ohio this summer and transitioning to an Internal Medicine residency at Case Western Reserve University.

2009

Bailey Bethell

bailey.bethell@gmail.com

Sylvia Brookoff

Sbrookoff@gmail.com

Lindsey Driver is fostering her 20th rescue dog for Tails of Hope in Memphis! Bailey Bethell Fountain started working at Le Bonheur as a Physician Assistant in pediatric cardiac surgery. She married Collin Fountain in June and Grace Bethell '12, Karen Stein Robbins, Liza Leatherman, Rebecca Schaeffer Anthony, and Elizabeth Ansbro were bridesmaids! Alex Tyler is celebrating 4 years of digital marketing work at iProspect and was recently promoted to Manager of Paid Search for her two teams. She resides in Fort Worth, Texas with her boxer Cricket. Claire Riley continues to teach at her school in Madrid and will be teaching 7th-12th grade ESL next year. Her 10th grade students are pen pals with Señora Walker's students at St. Mary's this term and are excited to hear about life as a student in the US! Jordan Reeve got a new position with Cat Financial as an Area Sales Operations Manager and will be moving to Houston this spring where Ruthie Morrison and Brandon O'Brien are also living! Jordan is also working to finish up her MBA this year. Alexandra Yawn just started a new position at U.S. Trust as Vice President, Private Client Associate.

Elizabeth Ansbro and Liza Leatherman are roommates in downtown Memphis! Sam Baumstark is living in Orange County working as a software consultant with Deloitte on a project with the Mayo Clinic. Kayleigh Renard Eisenstein graduated with her Masters degree in social work and started a job as an inpatient pediatric hematology/oncology social worker at Lurie Children's Hospital in Chicago. Sophie Page Lintner will be starting her 6th year of teaching 4th grade in Atlanta this fall! Natalie Jacewicz Kern is finishing her 2nd year of law school at NYU and is continuing to freelance; she recently interviewed two girls who escaped Boko Haram for NPR. She will be interning at WilmerHale in D.C. over the summer. Her dog Thisbe, who continues to be very fluffy, had her first birthday in April. Aubree Penney is developing a publication and a performance programme for a exhibition at Crossbones Garden, a historic unconsecrated graveyard in London's former red-light district. She's still working on her MFA in Curating and spends an inordinate amount of time staring out the bus window on her way to studio visits. Catherine Vaughn Bunker still enjoys teaching first grade at Christ Methodist Day School. Her daughter Caroline will begin 2K there this fall. She and her family welcomed another baby girl, Wallis Elizabeth Bunker, in April! Lavanya Mittal graduated from medical school in May and is spending one and a half months traveling throughout southeast Asia, Spain, and France. Afterwards, she will be staying put in New York City for dermatology residency. Austin Nichols Boukli loves working as a prosecutor in Memphis and married her "law school sweetheart" in March! Tyler Hyman graduated from the Ohio State College of Medicine in May. She will complete her intern year in Columbus then head back to the University of Pennsylvania for anesthesiology residency. Lillie Blanton started a new job as a civil rights attorney for Nexus Derechos Humanos Attorneys in February. She works pro bono to protect the rights of prisoners, immigrants, and other parties that are often taken advantage of. After working the Super Bowl for NBC in Minnesota, Sylvia Brookoff decided to take a break from television and recently started working as a Senior Analyst on the brand team at JetBlue. She conveniently shares a garbage can with Molly Himmelstein '08

CLASS NOTES

St. Mary's girls at the wedding of Neelam Khan Ali '06 at The Peabody Hotel.
From left: Mansi Narula '06, Katie Camille Friedman '06, Mary Earle '06, Charlotte Eagle '07, Mimi Arnold Lyon '06, Neelam Khan Ali '06, Paru Rayudu '06, Sarah Rice Stender '06, Aubrey Turner '06, Holly Hendrix Vitalis '06, Ellen Bransford '06, Lauren Bunch '06, and Elize Mercer '06.

Class of 2008 10th Reunion.

The Class of 2008, together again for their 10th reunion.

Karen Stein Robbins '09 celebrating her marriage to Dr. Gordon Robbins in May 2017 with her 2009 classmates (Clockwise from L to R) Rachel Aiken, Wallis Tosi, Jillian Smith, Natalie Earwood, Sylvia Brookoff, Rebecca Schaeffer Anthony, Elizabeth Stephens Ford, Brandon O'Brien, Bailey Betbell Fountain, Ruthie Morrison, Liza Leatherman, and Elizabeth Ansbro.

2008 classmates Kathryn Hamlett, Memory Madden Pobl, Amanda Castroverde, and Sarah Wortham at Alumnae Weekend 2018.

CLASS NOTES

Members of the class of 2009 gather over the holidays to meet Taft Wiseman Ford, son of Elizabeth Stephens Ford '09. Top Row (L to R): Ruthie Morrison, Jillian Smith, Elizabeth Ansbro, Eliza Leatherman. Bottom Row (L to R): Bailey Betbell, Rachel Aiken, Elizabeth Stephens Ford, Brandon O'Brien

Wendy Pritchett Ansbro '79, Elizabeth Ansbro '09, Kate Smith Mallory '07, and Irene Orgill Smith '79 always enjoy Chapel, especially when Kate is our alumna Chapel speaker!

since they sit right next to each other. Sylvia had a brief stint working as marketing rep at Insomnia Cookies but decided the employee discount was adversely affecting her health so she recently resigned. Gracie Gelfand is a litigator at Wolff Ardis PC in Memphis and with her trial team just achieved a 3.5 million dollar verdict for her clients in Columbia, Tenn. Grace McNatt loves living back in Nashville! She just accepted a position as Paralegal/Litigation Support Specialist with Cole Law Group, P.C., a growing firm in Brentwood specializing in practice areas such as family law, business law, and intellectual property.

2011

Meg Cornagchie

megcornagchie@gmail.com

Allyson Patterson

allyson.paige.patterson@gmail.com

Meriweather Adams is designing warehouses and loves hanging with her fellow Turkeys in Nashville. Christy Cameron is moving to

Chicago and was promoted within International Paper to a Technical Design Associate where she will be designing and testing boxes for e-commerce customers. Shelby Chambliss is finishing up her second year of teaching and was so excited to get married in June! Suzette Coors is living in Charleston, S.C. and working as a 6th/7th grade Language Arts and Social Studies teacher at Philip Simmons Middle School. Meg Cornagchie is finishing her third year at Baylor College of Medicine and can't wait to be a bridesmaid in Allyson Patterson's wedding in July. Teresa Hendrix Daniel is pursuing a Masters in Journalism & Strategic Media at the University of Memphis while continuing to work in social media at FedEx. Caroline Frisch recently left her firm to join a consumer health innovation team at CVS Health. Even though it's snowing in April, she is happy to be spending more time at home in Chicago. Abby McAtee Gatliff got a puppy and is starting her MDiv (Masters of Divinity) this fall at Beeson Divinity School. Eliza Hendrix will be starting the Doctorate of Occupational Therapy Program at Washington University in St. Louis this fall! Rebecca Rinehart Howard got married to Connor Howard in September 2017 and moved to Bloomington, Ill. in March. Valerie Huang is working in Boston at ClearView, a life sciences strategy consultancy and was promoted to senior consultant last December. Sarah Jemison moved to Memphis and loves living and working downtown and thinks the rest of the class of 2011 should come join! Katie Kaelin is teaching Kindergarten in Dallas and got married in June! Tinsley McBride is living in Nashville, working as Store Manager for Posh in Hillsboro Village, and beginning to work with the brand rep for Amuse Society in whole sale at markets. Margaret McClintock recently landed a dream job in Nashville as the Assistant Director of Regional Engagement in Vanderbilt's Development and Alumni Relations Office, where she works with Commodores across the country to stay engaged with the university and each other. Hunter Mitchell is finishing up third year at UT Medical School and is spending time with family, friends and her cats. Anna Morten is living in Atlanta and moving to the Virginia Highlands neighborhood this spring. She is still loving her job in market research and getting to travel around the world. Allyson Patterson got promoted at her design firm and is getting married in July! Mary Peeler is finishing up her third year of medical school at Johns Hopkins this summer. Next fall, she is moving to Boston to get her Masters of Public Health at Harvard with the Zuckerman fellowship. Sarah Phillips is graduating from nursing school in May and getting married in September with Christy Cameron as her maid of honor. Virginia Preston is living in New York and just signed a three year contract with Wilhelmina models, and can't wait to see where that journey takes her! Christina Pu is starting her 4th year of medical school at UVA and has many psychiatry electives lined up in preparation for applying to psych residency. Lucy Wade Shapiro is graduating with a Masters of Accounting from Vanderbilt Owen School of Business and will be staying in Nashville as an accountant. Erika Steuer was recently promoted as the Marketing and Communications Associate at The Albany Academies in upstate NY and is training to start hiking the High Peaks in the Adirondack mountains this summer. Lauren Harrington Stubblefield and her husband have moved to Phoenix where she works for Houzz on a high energy sales team, and her husband is in medical school. They got their first fur-baby named Daisy, who is an endless source of entertainment. Katie Danehy Wagoner started graduate school in August 2017 for her Masters in Counseling at UNC Greensboro. Whitney Wortham is graduating from Fordham University in May with Masters in Social Work and Masters in Public Health. She will be working in Uganda for the summer. Maria Zoccola is working with middle schoolers at a literacy and social justice nonprofit in Savannah, Georgia.

CLASS NOTES

2013

Anna Stukenborg

annastuk95@gmail.com

Anna Utley

autley94@gmail.com

Landon Hopkins is living in New York City working in the Fine Arts department for DeWitt Stern, an insurance brokerage firm. She frequently runs into Claire Fogarty at the local Chick-fil-A! Claire is working as a graphic designer and social media head for a startup in NYC. Helena Anderson is living in Brooklyn, where she is acting in plays and film. She is also the video content editor for a charity Twitch stream, Geeks4Good. Mary Tugle is living in New York City working for Goldman Sachs in their Private Wealth Management division. Emma Less is loving being back in Memphis! She is working at the Levitt Shell and freelancing social media, web design, and database management as well. Anna Utley is in Memphis and just moved downtown! She is working as an Interior Designer for Fleming Architects. One of her projects includes the new St. Mary's Wellness building addition! Lily Yant is working for Comcast in the advertising department as a Client Solutions Specialist for strategic accounts in Memphis. Alexa Fila is about to start her Masters in MIS with a concentration in IT Management while still working full time at International Paper on their business intelligence team in Memphis. She also just got a dog! Anna Taylor will graduate from her second Bride Becca Rinehart Howard '11 poses with bridesmaids and 2011 classmates Whitney Wortham, Lindsey Pearson, Abby McAtee Gattiff, Katie Danehy Wagoner, Lucy Wade Shapiro, and Morgan Van Dyke Ivy, all in St. Mary's colors!

Nicole Sanford '14 and Sydney Sanford '11 enjoy their adventures in Italy.

bachelor's degree in Nursing from UT Health Science Center in December, and she is currently interning in the ICU at Methodist University Hospital. Callie Wallace moved to Harbor Town and works at Burson-Marsteller, a global public relations agency. One of the main clients she works with is FedEx, handling everything from their crisis communications to corporate social responsibility campaigns. Lida Kruchten is graduating from Ole Miss with two degrees, in Systems and Accounting, and starting to work for HORNE LLP in Memphis. Sims Peters is getting her Masters in Health Promotion at Ole Miss, and she is planning to intern for Church Health Center this summer in Memphis! Rachel Chu is working at the Southern Environmental Law Center in Nashville. One case she is working on is with Protect Our Aquifer about the aquifer in Memphis and how TVA is drilling wells into it! Olivia Stevens is moving to Knoxville in June to start a grad assistantship in the dean of students' office at UT and pursue a masters in College Student Personnel in the fall! Bhavya Jha is living in California and working for Tesla with the Environment, Health, and Safety Team. Emily Rosenthal is living in San Francisco working for Aon, an insurance brokerage firm. Ellie Harrison is starting her Master's in Clinical Mental Health Counseling in August at Loyola University in New Orleans. Grace Bettis is working on her Master's in Criminology at the University of Arkansas and will be teaching statistics for the university this summer. Sophie Skouteris Mahaffey is finishing her rotations for her Dietetic Internship in August then will become a Registered Dietitian! Julia Williams is the Legal Advocate for the Iris Domestic Violence Center in Baton Rouge. Megan Soun is getting a Masters of Divinity at Duke and is getting married in May! Katie Heard is living in London working in strategy consulting and has started a small charity in Northern Ireland dedicated to engaging young people in cross community discussion and debate. Mashal Mirza is getting her Master's in Public Health with a concentration in Health Policy at Emory and currently interning for St. Jude/ ALSAC in the Atlanta regional office. She also recently got engaged! Anna Peeler is living in Baltimore working at Johns Hopkins. She recently had a patient whose family was friends with Henrietta Lacks who showed her around the site where she was able to see all the sites from the book she read at St. Mary's in real life! Mackenzie Isom is in D.C. doing Investment Performance Reporting at Cambridge Associates. Sukriti Mohan is graduating in May with her Master's in Public Health from Yale. Hannah Stein is in Dallas teaching second grade, and she recently got engaged! Francie Saunders is working with Greenwood Wildlife Rehabilitation Center this summer in Longmont, Colo. where she will be taking care of animals then releasing them back into the wild if they are healthy and capable of surviving on their own before she moves to Fort Collins in the fall. Sarah Spiers is a producer at Filament Games and runs the IGDA Scholars program. Devon Simms is working at an AFRC in Germany and taking advantage of the opportunity to travel through Europe before moving back to the states in September!

CLASS NOTES

2015

Michelle Chu

mchu@oberlin.edu

Emma Farris

efarris@gwu.edu

Ashton Terry is a psychology major with a child development minor at the University of Memphis, with university honors and psychology honors. She is a member of Psi Chi, the international psychology honors society. She has continued her work as a Peer Advisor in the psychology department. Ashton is also working as an assistant in a research lab called the Child Health and Illness Lab that studies chronic childhood illnesses. She recently proposed her honors thesis and will be defending it in the fall. She is also an intern at the Harwood Center which is a school program for special needs children. She will be starting an internship in the fall at a diabetes clinic shadowing and doing research with a pediatric

Class of 2013 5th Reunion.

Adira Polite '14 savors the Australian sun after her travels in Bali, Thailand, and Sydney.

psychologist. She plans to graduate in the fall. Ayanna Martin has been studying abroad in London and interning at Douglas Silas Solicitors, a law firm that advocates for special needs children's education rights. She recently launched her mobile app called ChamberMade that connects college students and young adults to ministries ranging from mega churches to student led small groups in their respective areas; the app also promotes a more inclusive Christian community on campuses via the Campus Connect feature. Ayanna will be graduating this December and plans to pursue law school post-graduation. Mary Jane McCaghren is interning in Coconut Creek, Fla. at Motionpoint, a tech start-up company, through the Carey Fellows business program at Sewanee. This summer she will be in Memphis working as a financial analyst intern at Mercer Capital. She has recently become an English major. Kylie McDowell spent last summer working in NYC at NYU's Department of Technology, Culture, and Society. This past fall semester, she took graduate courses for a Master's in Urban Planning at NYU Wagner and was awarded a $10,000 Green

CLASS NOTES

Grant from the Office of Sustainability at NYU to create a study abroad program for the January term. She also traveled to Shanghai in January to collect data on the correlations between the built environment characteristics and the level of walkability of the neighborhoods. She is currently working at the Department of Technology, Culture, and Society with NYU, continuing to get support and raise interest in the Shanghai Program from other students. Jane Morrison is studying abroad with UNC Kenan Flagler's GLOBE program, spending the fall semester at the Copenhagen Business School and the spring semester at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. This summer she will be interning in Charlotte, N.C. for Ernst and Young in their Business Advisory Program in the Financial Services Office. Samantha Wischmeyer is continuing her major in Motion Media Design at SCAD. Liza Curran is continuing her accounting major this summer, interning for Watkins Uiberall. Nessa Steinberg is going to Boston this summer as a fellow with the NIH, doing research with the Framingham Heart Study, and taking a graduate biostatistics course through the program's partnership with Boston University. Lynley Matthews currently serves as president of the Columbia University Panhellenic Council, in addition to being a research assistant for the Rao Lab Columbia University Medical Center Department of Pediatrics, a research fellow for the German

Academic Exchange Program in which she will be working ten weeks in Zweibrücken, Germany this summer. Lynley will continue her biology and psychology majors, planning to apply to medical school. Mary Thompson was recently awarded a research grant to research the artist Modigliani, continuing her major in Art History and French language. She also works as a student art curator and in the office of admissions at University of Puget Sound as a tour guide. Mary also serves on the leadership team for Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Chelsea Chin is living full time in St. Louis, working in The Siteman Cancer Center at Barnes-Jewish Hospital on a Medical Oncology floor, specializing in bone marrow transplants. She will be continuing this job throughout her senior year of nursing school. She is excited for her nursing preceptorship in the fall and eagerly anticipates graduating from Saint Louis University with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing in May 2019. Maggie McAtee has started nursing school at Auburn University. In addition to classwork, she enjoys her opportunity to serve on the RUF ministry team. Michelle Chu has been studying abroad this spring semester at Prague Film School. She will continue her Cinema Studies and Creative Writing major at Oberlin College next fall, planning to continue working as a head cook for the Oberlin Student Cooperative Association. Hannah Pfrommer has been working in a research Maddie Rhodes '14 celebrates her last collegiate golf tournament at Rhodes College.

Abby Huber '14 is inducted into the Carson Circle, an award for a select number of seniors graduating from the University of Memphis who have exhibited profound leadership and involvement on campus.

Maddie Droke '14, Mary Katherine Harris '14, and Natalie Meeks '14 at their Circle Degree ceremony, in which they became Tri Delta alumnae.

CLASS NOTES

Larson Wade '16 successfully summited Mount Aconcagua at 22,834 feet, the highest mountain in the Americas. She performed this feat over Christmas break 2017 with her father, Boyd Wade, St. Mary's Trap Coach.

Emily Louie '16 (right) runs a half marathon at UCLA.

A'Doriann Bradley '16 on an alternative spring break trip in Texas.

Julia Williams '16 biking in Vermont.

Ali MacQueen '16 enjoyed studying abroad in Barcelona.

Iliana Watson '16 in Madrid.

CLASS NOTES

Paarsa Haque '16 gives a speech for University of Southern California.

Grace Ugwueke '16 participates in African Student Union's fashion show.

Elizabeth Bateman '16 attending Crawfest at Tulane University.

lab and was awarded two grants to conduct independent research on sleep disruption and neuroinflammation in mice through the Biological Sciences Initiative Program at Colorado University. Hannah applied and was accepted out of only five undergraduates to CU's master's program in Integrative Physiology. Additionally, Hannah is active on campus and in her community as the executive director and co-founder of the St. Jude Club at CU, recently receiving a scholarship for her commitment to the program, and as a volunteer at Boulder Reads. This year Brooke Saharovici was tapped into Omicron Delta Kappa, a national honor society, elected president of Mizzou's American Advertising Federation, and will be a Panhellenic Counselor for Mizzou's formal sorority recruitment in August. Emma Farris spent her fall semester studying in Buenos Aires, Argentina and is currently studying in Barranquilla, Colombia. In Colombia, Emma has been conducting independent research on the peace accord between the FARC armed group and the Colombian government, specifically focusing on the transitional justice system, the Special Jurisdiction for Peace

2017

Rachel Chin

rchin256@gmail.com

Anar Parmar

anarparmar@gmail.com

Jean Jackson

jeanjackson17@gmail.com

Meg Jones is a member of Delta Gamma sorority and just received the position of director of service hours at Depaul University. Addie Quinlen is traveling to Morocco for six weeks this summer to study Arabic and plans to use this experience to fulfill her minor credits in the language. Emma Mansberg will be in Marion, Ala. working to implement a computer literacy program for the community. When she returns to Memphis, she will be working in the district attorney's office. Carmen Freeman secured an internship with the office of Kevin Kamenetz for government and another for a campaign in Tennessee. Additionally, she was rookie of the year for volleyball in the America East Conference.

Kate Herzke is a member of Tri Delta sorority, but that's not all! She is also in the 1794 honors and scholars program at UTK and will be working at Buff City Soaps this summer.

Lelia Jones is a member of Kappa Delta sorority and is on the Ministry team for Reformed University Fellowship. She also spends her time volunteering with local elementary schools' after school program called ARCH. This summer she will be working at Camp Desoto and teaching lacrosse and mountain biking activities.

CLASS NOTES

Alumnae enjoy being back in St. Mary's Chapel at Alumnae Weekend 2018.

Michele Becton is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority, the black student association, and the women's advocacy club. She works with Rhodes football team and started to create the first collegiate Facing History Program.

Molly Aslin is spending her summer in a lab researching conductive properties of organic semiconductors. In her free time, she rows for the crew team.

Lexie Rook is loving her time at the University of Arkansas so far. She is a member of the Zeta Gamma chapter of Kappa Delta. She serves on the philanthropy team and planned an event that raised over $35,000. This summer she is studying for the LSAT, taking classes, and traveling.

Grayson Lusk-Hussong has spent the last 7 months working at St. Vincent's in Haiti and has created a blog on Wordpress documenting her experiences. Josie Campbell is a volunteer EMT on campus and is doing research this summer.

Alina Perez is travelling to Madagascar for two months this summer to build a water filtration system and pipeline that she helped design for a village that is in desperate need of clean water. Sophia Mokhtari was the first alum of our class to speak at St. Mary's after we graduated and is also a member of the dance team at Denver University.

Jasmine Huang focuses on investigative journalism as the Junior Editor of the Sewanee Purple and is going to have a research assistantship in Nanjing, China to work in the field with water pollution and environmental activism. Margie Peeler is studying biosystems engineering, working at the outdoors center, and playing club lacrosse at the University of Tennessee. Next year, she will be the secretary of the lacrosse team! Zoya Latif is involved in a peer health exchange program where she taught a few times a week at public schools around the Chicago area. She was also involved in the Raas Indian dance group and worked to choreograph a dance for the South Asian Students Association cultural show at the University of Chicago. Jean Jackson was a member of the first PINK Campus Street Team at Howard University and held the position of videographer. She will be interning at the Cannes Film Festival in Cannes, France in May and then will be traveling to Tainan, Taiwan for an eight week language intensive program. Rachel Chin held a job in the office of admissions at Saint Louis University and is a member of Alpha Delta Phi Sorority. Celie Shankman is the freshman representative of her sorority Kappa Alpha Theta. Additionally, she is a C40 tour guide and the holiday programming chair for Hillel/JSU. Next year she plans to be an RA. Meredith Hood will be lifeguarding this summer at the U Club to relax a bit after a busy and productive freshman year. She was a member of the Campus Activities Board, a board that coordinates big concerts and events around campus. In fact, in May, the board is bringing Bob to campus! Over spring break she embarked on a service trip with Appalachia Volunteers to Hazard, Kentucky. This past January Abby Shutzberg took a j-term, a time when the students of Elon have the opportunity to take one class for 3 weeks. It's also a fun month because they have lots of free time on the weekends (and this year lots of snow). Towards the end of the month, she took a trip up to the Appalachian Mountains with her friends!

MILESTONES

PROFESSIONAL UPDATES

Rachel Bearman '04

Communications and Marketing VP Women's Rabbinic Network

Lauren Arnold Bell '04

Resident Pediatrics
Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC

Mimi Billings '14

Credit Analyst
Bank3

Lillie Blanton '09

Civil Rights Attorney
Nexus Derechos Humanos
Attorneys

Amanda Castroverde '08

Partner Marketing Manager
HomeAway

Lacey Chaum '14

Associate
Prophet: Brand & Marketing Consultancy

Ellen Clarke '14

Wealth Manager
UBS Financial Services

Camille Cowart '14

Interim Literary Arts and AP English Literature Teacher
Nashville School of the Arts

Shelby Deeney '04

Deputy Colorado State
Public Defender, argued first Colorado Supreme Court Case

Sarah Donaldson '09

Chartered Financial Analyst

Lindsey Driver '09

Digital Marketing Specialist
EdR Trust

Amanda Duke '92

Privacy Manager,
Sales and Marketing
Microsoft

Margaret Liddon Emley '08

Director of Real Estate
Vanderbilt University

Frances Coughlin Fenelon '88

Senior Operations Counsel
Community Health Systems

Leigh Ferguson '99

Chief Legal Counsel,
Commerce and Insurance

Whitney King Fogerty '92

Managing Director,
Legal Counsel FedEx

Bailey Bethell Fountain '09

Physician Assistant in Pediatric Cardiac Surgery
Le Bonheur Children's Hospital

Phoebe Fulmer '14

Language and Culture Assistant
CIEE's Teach in Spain

Gracie Gelfand '09

Litigator
Wolff Ardis PC

Gail Borod Giacobbe '87

Vice President of Product
GoDaddy

Kathy Buckman Gibson '80

Owner
KBG Technologies

Lucy Cheek Gordon '85

Chief Financial Officer
United Healthcare Community Plan of Arizona

Rachel Johnston-White '06

Postdoctoral Research Fellow in Contemporary History
Vienna School of International Studies

Sara Kim '12

US Influenza Vaccine Effectiveness Team
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Sarah Lacy '94

Founder
Chairmanmom.com

Sarah Ledbetter '94

Dance premier Fringe Fest

Evie Ilyas '06

Theatrical Creative Digital Marketing
Lionsgate

Ellen Makowsky '06

Retail Marketing Manager
TOMS

Hester Shipp Mathes '92

Senior Associate Rector
Church of the Holy Communion

Julia Chesney McDonald '96

Vice President of Marketing & Communications

The Community Foundation of Greater Memphis

Rachel McLemore '08

American History Teacher
Mount St. Mary Academy

Grace McNatt '09

Paralegal and Litigation
Support Specialist
Cole Law Group, P.C.

Natalie Meeks '14

Research and Operations Fellow
UVA's Darden School of Business, Mayo Center for Asset Management

Edie Miller '08

Business Manager, Pediatric Specialties
Our Lady of the Lake
Regional Medical Center

Ellen Mitchell '12

Clinical Dietitian
LeBonheur

Jamie Moran '94

Associate Professor
University of South Florida
College of Medicine

Ruth Cheney Patton '87

Pediatrician
Pediatric Consultants

Adira Polite '14

Paralegal
Federal Defender Program

Mary Allison Pritchard '14

Apprentice Teacher
Brownsville Collegiate Charter School

Jordan Reeve '09

Area Sales Operations Manager
Cat Financial

Ashford Carney

Rosenberg '04

Policy Analyst
Gulf of Mexico Reef Fish Shareholders' Alliance

Nicole Sanford '14

Medical Scribe
LeBonheur

Miles Schaeffer '14

Student Researcher, Pediatric Oncology Research Lab
Sloan Kettering Hospital

Joann Self Selvidge '94

Documentary premier PBS

Jennie Weaver Tucker '04

Neonatal Nurse Practitioner
Le Bonheur

Alex Tyler '09

Manager of Paid Search iProspect

MILESTONES

Nora Wingfield Tyson '75

Retired Commander of the Third Fleet
United States Navy

Ebony Welch '95

Annual Giving Coordinator
Jackson Academy

Tea Stoecklein Wells '05

Pediatric Specialist Certification in Physical Therapy

Alexandra Yawn '09

Vice President,
Private Client Associate
U.S. Trust

Isabelle Yawn '14

Client Service Associate
UBS Financial Services

Jessica Farris Zafarris '08

Content Director
Writer's Digest

POSTGRADUATE DEGREES

Alex Buford '12

Master of Educational Psychology
University of Texas

Cristen Garrett Cain '08

Doctor of Medicine
Emory School of Medicine

Elizabeth Batchelor Calkins '05

Master of Teaching English to Speakers of Other languages
Azusa Pacific University

Sasha Castroverde '04

Master of Business
Administration
Yale School of Management

Rebecca Anderson Eby '06

Master of Business
Administration
The University of Chicago
Booth School of Business

Kayleigh Renard

Eisenstein '09

Master of Arts in Social Work
University of Illinois at Chicago

Hallie Flanagan '07

Juris Doctor
University of Memphis
School of Law

Bailey Bethell Fountain '09

Master in Medical Science
Physician Assistant
University of Tennessee
Health Science Center

Tyler Hyman '09

Doctor of Medicine
The Ohio State University
College of Medicine

Rachel Johnston-White '06

Doctor of History
Yale University

Sara Kim '12

Master of Public Health
Yale School of Public Health

Suzie Loveless '03

Master of Economic Development
University of Oklahoma

Edie Miller '08

Master of Science in Health Administration
University of Alabama at Birmingham

Lavanya Mittal '09

Doctor of Medicine with Distinction in Research
Albert Einstein College of Medicine

Sukriti Mohan '13

Master of Public Health
Yale University

Jessica Richardson

Moses '08
Master in Foreign Language Education
Auburn University

Mansi Narula '06

Master of Business
Administration
University of Texas

Jess Pfeffer '03

Doctor of English
Tufts University

Marianne Rizk Schnall '05

Doctor of Clinical Psychology
University of Iowa

Lucy Wade Shapiro '11

Master of Accounting Vanderbilt Owen School of Business

Whitney Wortham '11

Master of Social Work and Master in Public Health Fordham University

MARRIAGES

Anisa Allad '08

to Adam Fedoruk
June 2, 2018

Megan Bailey '05

to Christopher Constantino
April 7, 2018

Bailey Bethell '09

to Collin Davis Fountain
June 16, 2018

Fontaine Taylor Brown '87

to John Albritton
March 24, 2018

Nica Cabigao '10

to Ben Graunke
June 9, 2018

Shelby Chambliss '11

to Joe Pascal
June 9, 2018

Emily Cochran '97

to Darrick O'Dell
February 3, 2018

Stephanie Dunavant '03

to Taylor Loftin
March 24, 2018

Holly Hendrix '06

to Neal Vitalis
May 12, 2018

Molly Himmelstein '08

to Dan Hollenberg
May 26, 2018

Katie Kaelin '11

to Carson Fronterhouse
June 2, 2018

Liz Keltner '01

to Matt Nagy
May 19, 2018

Neelam Khan '06

to Hurr Ali
March 31, 2018

Memory Madden '08

to Jake Pohl
March 17, 2018

Ariel Mason '08

to Jamhal Kelly
July 1, 2017

Sahar Mokhtari '10

to Abteen Moshref
May 19, 2018

Carson Mullins '12

to Spencer Pigg
May 27, 2018

Austin Nichols '09

to Sam Boukli
March 3, 2018

Lindsey Pearson '11

to Spencer Smith
June 9, 2018

Rebecca Schaeffer '09

to Benjamin Leonard Anthony
April 21, 2018

MILESTONES

Chrystan Skefos '02

to Joshua Leasure
February 17, 2018

Tea Stoecklein '05

to Henry Wells
November 4, 2017

Lulu Wilson '06

to William Wild
December 30, 2017

Elizabeth Womack '07

to Colin Edmundson
May 12, 2018

Sarah Wortham '08

to Gus Nielson
April 28, 2018

BIRTHS ADOPTIONS

Max Hamza Bernstein to Lauren Weinrich Bernstein '00
December 12, 2017

Reagan Louise Boggs to Jenay Gipson Boggs '06
October 26, 2017

Magnolia Scott Brafford and William "Pennson" Brafford to Erin Nolen Brafford '05
January 21, 2018

Wallis Elizabeth Bunker to Catherine Vaughn Bunker '09
April 20, 2018

Owen Edward Levy to
Clare Levy Clarke '97
November 14, 2017

Charles Ellis Langelier to Victoria Corder '01
November 29, 2017

Clara Grace Davis to Grace Wheeler Davis '06
April 12, 2018

Mabel Margaret and Catherine Rosemary to Melissa Graunke Decosimo '07
May 29, 2018

Jacqueta Sallis "Si" Kaundler Laws Fuller to Elizabeth Laws Fuller '01
December 9, 2017

Charlotte Adeline Gray to Emily Templeton Gray '05
December 18, 2017

Elise Ileana Hernandez to Brittany Johnson Hernandez '04
October 3, 2017

Mattie McKnight Hickey to Cathleen Ray Hickey '04
December 14, 2017

Lavinia Grace Hosack to Sloane Metcalf Hosack '08
January 28, 2018

Henry Hudson Jaqua to Kaitlin Ridder Jaqua '04
January 23, 2018

Joshua Marcus Jemison to Amanda Ayerst Jemison '06
December 1, 2017

Walter Andrew Malwitz to Elizabeth Jemison '04
December 26, 2017

Isabel and Elena to Hala Khuri Jimenez '97
December 10, 2017

Philip Jensen Knight to Grace Jensen Knight '05
April 2, 2018

Audrey Ellen Mills to Patricia Blount Mills '04
October 5, 2017

Erin Avery Morich to Victoria Luke Morich '04
January 23, 2018

Max, son of Lauren Weinrich Bernstein '00, shows his St. Mary's spirit.

Si Fuller, daughter of Elizabeth Laws Fuller '01.

MILESTONES

Andrew Sandidge Riley, son of Lauren Wiygul Riley '05, already loves St. Mary's.

Elise Ileana Hernandez, daughter of Brittany Johnson Hernandez '04.

Bethany Anne Neufeld to Annie McLaren Neufeld '99
March 10, 2018

Virginia Rhodes Olesen to Laine Peeler Olesen '04
November 10, 2017

Samuel Powers Passarella to Elizabeth Schatz Passarella '95
March 28, 2018

James Connell Rainer VI to Faye Kenner Rainer '05
December 19, 2017

Grace Pierrepont Rhodes to Betsy Matthews Rhodes '04
February 7, 2018

Andrew Sandidge Riley to Lauren Wiygul Riley '05
December 18, 2017

Lawson Kelly Rowe to Brittney Rogers Rowe '03
December 5, 2017

Hazel Ray Rushing to Lindsey Edwards Rushing '06
February 15, 2018

Cameron Wrahse Schauer to Marley Baer Schauer '02
November 10, 2017

Lee Schnuerer to Ann Atkinson Schnuerer '07
November 9, 2017

Fulton Harrison Smith to Erica Smith '99
November 7, 2017

Jane McKenna Wiley, daughter of Jessie Walker Wiley '04.

Mary Lane Stevens to Lucy Foster Stevens '10
April 23, 2018

Katherine Eleanor
"Kate" Timmons to Louise Schumacher Timmons '03
April 22, 2018

John Martin Wagner to Hallie Bowland Wagner '95
May 17, 2018

Jane McKenna Wiley to Jessie Walker Wiley '04
March 5, 2018

Elizabeth "Lizzie" June
Yacoubian to Laura Jennings Yacoubian '05
December 27, 2017

IN MEMORIAM

Minor Robertson Broadus '41

Betty Dobbs Fowler '48

Caroline Keith '81

Beth Stidham Levenson '72

Molly Mednikow '86

Louise Tate Norton '48

LIVE ON THE BUCKMAN STAGE...

2018-2019 SEASON

The Buckman

Performing & Fine Arts Center

at St. Mary's Episcopal School

Delta Rae 9.16.2018

Artrageous 9.30.2018

Tito Puente, Jr., and Melina Almodovar 10.21.2018

Ukraine's Kurbasy 11.3.2018

Ruthie Foster 1.19.2019

Lucas Bohn's Lesson Plans to Late Night 1.27.2019

PHILADANCO 2.8.2019

Underwater Bubble Show 2.28.2019

Italy's NEWPOLI 3.29.2019

Joan Osborne 4.13.2019

For tickets, visit buckmanartscenter.com or call 901.537.1483

60 Perkins Extended, Memphis, TN 38117

ST. MARY'S EPISCOPAL SCHOOL

60 Perkins Extended, Memphis, TN 38117-3199
www.stmarysschool.org

Dated Material —
Please Expedite

Non-profit Organization
U.S. Postage PAID

Memphis, TN
Permit No. 810